To the worshipful Court of Southampton County in Chancery sitting - Humbly complaining sheweth unto your worship your oration ~~and~~ ^{positive} facts, that on the 18th 3 / 18th 3 in 18th 3 your worship day of ¹⁸²³ in the year, she was placed in possession of a small house and garden place, by a certain Lunsford Lundy, whom she may be made defendant hereto, but that nothing was said on the subject of rent which was to be paid. She recollects that some agreement respecting ~~a trivial agreement~~ the Lills, was made between them. But she well remembers that no other bargain or contract was entered into. Yet the said Lundy, tho' the instrumentality of David Thomas a constable duly qualified according to law, and whom your orator also may be made defendant hereto, has detained several articles of property belonging to your orator, to wit. 3 beds and furniture for the same and a cow and harrow - for the payment of fifteen pounds. on account which the said Lundy has exhibited against your orator for two years and seven months rent arrears. All which is contrary to equity. In tender consideration whereof and because your orator is only
