SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY
CHANCERY PAPERS

ROBINSON'S ADMR & al VS CARY'S EXECUTOR et al 5/18/4

other SURNAMES: Gholson, Yates, Taylor, Stith, Edmunds, Buxton

To the worshipful Court of Southampton County in Chancery sitting. Humbly complaining sheweth your worship your orator Peter Robinson administrator of his late wife Elizabeth Robinson dec'd, your orator brother Thomas G. Holton and Anne his wife, late Anne Gates, daughter of the said Elizabeth of her former intromarriage with a certain William Gates, your orator brother Lewis Taylor and Peggy his wife, late Peggy Cary, and your orators Sally P. Cary and Charlotte Louisa Cary and your orator George B. Cary, infant children of Miles Cary dec'd, late of the County of Southampton, by the said Peter Robinson their guardian & next friend, that on or about the day of The said Miles Cary departed this life in the said County of Southampton, having first duly made and published his last will & testament in writing, and that at a Court held for the said County on the 21 day of July 1856, a certain E. Theodor Edmunds, one of the said Executors therein named, qualified to the said will and took upon himself the function of executing the same - that the said Miles Cary, at the time of his death, left a widow, to wit, the above named Elizabeth, who after wards intromarried with your orator Peter Robinson, ^{three} ~~four~~ daughters and one son, to wit, your orators Sally P. Cary, your orator Charlotte L. Cary, Martha Cary and your orator George B. Cary, children of his intromarriage with the said Elizabeth, and two daughters, to wit, your orators Peggy and Nancy Cary, who afterwards intromarried with a certain John Tith, children of his ^{former} intermarriage with a certain Griggs Buxton - that among the devices and bequests in the said will contained the following - "My will and desire is, that my Buckhorn and Bottomway plantations be kept up, and that the lands thereon and a sufficiency of stock of every kind be kept thereon, for the support of my five daughters until Nancy or Peggy Cary marries or comes of age, at which time I desire, that the one who marries first shall draw one half of the slaves called the Buxton family, to be possessed by her and her heirs for ever - excepting the slaves of the said family I lend to my wife - The said plantations are then to be kept up with the remainder of my slaves, not given away, or lent until the other comes of age or marries - when either happens I desire she may have the remainder of the said family of slaves and their increase - excepting those I lent my wife - The said plantations, I desire, may ^{still} be kept up for the benefit of the rest of my girl children, until the death of my wife, and at her death I desire the said plantations may be sold at public sale, together with the crops made thereon, all the stock of every kind and all the utensils and implements belonging to the said plantations, and the monies arising from said sale, I desire, may be equally divided between my five daughters or as many of them or their children, as may be living at the death of my wife, if at that period, any of my daughters should be dead and have children, the children of the one or of those who may be dead are to draw of the above sales only so much, as their mother or mothers would have been entitled to, had she or they (as the case may be) lived, viz - one share - as will fully appear by an attested copy of the said last will & testament hereto annexed and to which your worship are referred as a part of this bill - Your worship's brother, by leave to the court, that upon the marriage of your mother Peggy and of the said Nancy Salk, they drew their negroes of the Barton family generally to the clause in the said testament will above recited - that the said Martha Cary, sister of your mother Anne Gibson by the mother's side, and of your mother Peggy Cary and the deceased Nancy Salk, by the father's side, as before stated, shortly thereafter departed ^{the said} without issue and before her attainment of the age when infants may bequeath personal estate - whereupon the portions of the slaves upon the Buckhorn and Nottoway plantations, were divided between the entitled heirs of a decree of this court, and her vested interest in Remainder in the slaves not of the Barton family and other property bequeathed to the said Elizabeth for life, descended to her kinred, in the following proportions - that is to say - one whole share to the said Elizabeth her mother, which now belongs to your mother Peter Robinson, who took in due form of law obtained letters of administration upon the estate of the said Elizabeth, from the County of Southampton, one half share to your mother Anne, one half share to your mother Peggy, one whole share, each, to your natives Sally P. Cary & Charlotte L. Cary and your mother Geo. B. Cary, and one half share to the said Nancy Salk - Your mother's brother also by leave to the court, that upon the death of the said Martha, the said Buckhorn and Nottoway plantations were kept up in pursuance of the said will until the day of February 1814, when the said Elizabeth departed this life - In consequence of the death of the said Elizabeth, the aforesaid undivided third part in the following slaves, to wit, Sidney, John, Anthony, Billy, Charles, Mason, Nicholas, Arthur, Thomas, Maud & Mary and George and other property, bequeathed to the said Elizabeth for life, Remainder to (as before stated) to all her children [and as to the slaves not of the Barton family] & his daughters Sally, Charlotte & Martha, is now subject to distribution in the proportions before mentioned; the said Buckhorn & Nottoway plantations, together with the crops, stock and plantation utensils, are now required to be sold and the monies arising from such sale to be divided in the manner directed by the said will, and the slaves bequeathed to your natives Sally P. Cary and Charlotte L.

Cary, as well those upon the Buckhorn and Nottoway plantations, as the two thirds of the above mentioned slaves, bequeathed to the said Elizabeth for life, are to be equally divided between them - Now whether the same cannot be done without the aid and intervention of a Court of Equity - where matters of this sort are properly cognizable - to the end thereof that the said Elizabeth's Executors

Ex^{rs} of the last will & testament of the said Miles Cary dec^d and the said John Salk and Nancy his wife, may be made defendants to this bill & compelled to answer all & singular the allegations therein contained & that as fully & perfectly as if the same were herein repeated & they themselves particularly interrogated - that your worship will decree that the aforesaid Buckhorn & Nottoway plantations, to wit together with the crops made thereon, the stock & plantation utensils be sold & the money arising from said ^{sale} be divided in the manner directed by the said will - from a fair construction of which, your natives Sally P. Cary & Charlotte L. Cary consider themselves exclusively entitled to the proceeds of the sale of the crops - that your worship will also decree that the slaves upon the Buckhorn and Nottoway plantations be equally divided between your natives Sally P. Cary & Charlotte L. Cary, equally to the said will - that the slaves herein before particularly named, bequeathed to the said Elizabeth for life, Remainder to your natives Sally P. Cary and Charlotte L. Cary and the deceased Martha Cary, now deceased, be divided into three equal parts, one of the said parts to be allotted to your mother Sally P. Cary, and another of the said parts to be allotted to your mother Charlotte L. Cary, and that the remaining third part, being that to which the said Martha Cary was entitled, may be divided, or sold & the proceeds of the said sale divided, in the manner & in the proportions before mentioned - that any other course be resorted to which upon the merits of the case may seem proper, and any other & general relief granted consistent with Equity & good conscience - May it please the your ~~worship~~ worship to grant the premises with the writ of Subpoena commanding & as in duty bound your mother Robinson will ever pray &c.

Still for prompt.

To the Honorable Court of Chancery in Chancery sitting. The Joint Separate answer of John Salk & Nancy his wife, to the bill of complaint exhibited in this court against the said Executors Ex^{rs} of the last will & testament of Miles Cary dec^d and themselves by Peter Robinson ad^{rs} of Elizabeth Robinson deceased, Thomas Gibson and Anne his wife, Lewis Taylor and Peggy his wife and Sally P. Cary, Charlotte L. Cary and Geo. B. Cary, infant children of the said Miles Cary dec^d, by the said Peter Robinson, their guardian & next friend. The said Defendants saying & answering to themselves, now and at all times hereafter, were conveyed by ^{the said} to the said bill, for answer thereto - that they cannot gain say the allegations therein contained, except as to the construction given to the will of the said Miles Cary dec^d, as to the manner in which the proceeds of the sale of the crops upon the Buckhorn & Nottoway plantations are to be divided - that the said plantations, together with the crops made thereon, the stock & plantation utensils are to be sold & the monies arising from the said sale equally divided between all the living daughters of the said testator - and of course that one fourth part of the said rescues will rightfully belong to them - Having answered &c. they may be hence dismissed &c.

In the respectful Court of Southampton County in Chancery sitting - The separate answer of Edmund Edmunds Jr of the last will & Testament of Charles Cary dec'd to the bill of complaint exhibited in this Court against him & Peter Robinson & Nancy his wife, by Peter Robinson and Elizabeth Robinson ad'rs of Thomas Gholson & Anne his wife, Louis Taylor and Peggy his wife, and Sally L. Cary, Charlotte L. Cary, and Geo. B. Cary infant children of the said Miles Cary and by the said Peter Robinson their guardian next friend -

The said Defendant having answering to himself every concept of Exception to the said bill for answer thereto faith, that the facts stated in the said bill are true, but he denies the right of this Court to make any decree relative to the ^{sale of the} Duckhorn & Nottingham plantations, the crops, stock & utensils - considering himself exclusively entitled as Ex'or to make such Sale - In other respects he has no objection to such decree as the wisdom of this Court may dictate - And he prays to be hence dismissed &c.

I Miles Cary of Southampton County do hereby make my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say. I give to my wife Elizabeth Cary five horses namely the tenses mare and colt, Taylor Ball, Pacing Jack, Milo Colt and the munda jilly; twenty cattle to be chosen by herself out of the stock on the plantation whereon I now live; twenty ewes and one ram, and all my stock of hogs on said plantations.

I lends to my said wife Elizabeth the plantation whereon I now live during her life. I also lends her the following negroes during her life (to wit) Thompson, Harry, Tabitha, belias, Sidney, Phil, Silas, Sam Blany, Anthony, Willis, Billy, Claiborne, James, Mason, Rainey and Franky (and George). I also lend my wife all my household furniture except two bed furniture. I lend her all my kitchen furniture, my coachee and harness, my new riding chain and harness, my still and all the utensils belonging to the plantation whereon I now live, during her life. all the above gifts and loans are in lieu of dower at the death of my wife. I desire that the household and kitchen furniture, the coachee and harness the riding chain and harness and the utensils belonging to my said plantation except the still may be sold, and the money arising from the sales I desire may be equally divided amongst all my children; the still I give to my son George to him and his heirs. I also give to my son George Booth Cary, my tract of land known by the name of the Creek quarter, which is bounded by the main run of Stottaway River, the main run of the three creeks, John Applewhites line and Browne line, to him and his heirs forever. at the death of my wife, I give to my said son George the tract of land whereon I now live to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my son George the following slaves (to wit) Molly and her three children, Charles, Lucy & Milly; Jacob, Harris, Bob, Moses, Will, Sterling, Anckey Willis & Charlotte, to him and his heirs forever. I also give to my said son the six horses belonging to the creek quarter, all the Stock of cattle thereon, and all the Stock of hogs except those that will be fattened for sale, and for the overseers provision the ensuing year; I also give to my said son my still and all the tools and implements of every kind on the said plantation; I also give to my said son twenty of the best Sheep of the Stock on the said plantation and also what corn may be necessary to support the plantation the ensuing year. My will and desire is that my ~~plantation~~ ^{Whitcomb} & Attaway plantations be kept up, and that the hands ~~and~~ ^{and a sufficient} of stock of every kind be kept thereon for the support of my five daughters untill Nancy or Peggy come to marriage or comes of age, at which time I desire that the one who marries first shall draw one half of the Slaves called the Dapton Family to be possessed by her and her heirs forever, excepting the Slaves of the said Family I lend to my wife: the said plantations are then to be kept up with the remainder of my Slaves not given away or lent untill the other comes of age or marries when either happens, I desire she may have the remainder of the said Family of Slaves and their increase excepting those I lent to my wife; the said plantations I desire may be ^{still} kept up for the benefit of the rest of my girl children untill the death of my wife. And at her death, I desire the said plantations may be sold at publick Sale together with the crops made thereon, all the Stock of every kind, and all the utensils & implements belonging to the said plantations, and the monies arising from said Sale I desire may be equally divided between my five daughters or as many of them or their children as may be living at the death of my wife; if at that period any of my daughters should be dead and leave children, the children of the one, or of those who may be dead are to draw of the above Sale only so much as their mother or mothers would have been entitled to had she or or they (as the case may be) live, viz. one Share: the Sales above last men=tions are to take place at some convenient time after the death of my wife. To prevent mistakes (and disputes) I think proper here to name the Slaves that make the ~~Boston~~ Family (& ~~children of mine~~ I leave my wife) which are as follows, (Family) Nell, Piny, Moses, Tom, Stephen Amor, Pinsky, Jm Buxton, Dany, Pink, Lewis, Bob, Cley, Silpha, Patience, Jane, Peg, Lucy, Jane, David, Moses, Joshua, Jipe, Annise Isaac, Nat, Lewis, Louisa, Jerry, Eliza, Rhoda, Jas, & Jack. at the death of my wife I give to be equally divided between my daughters Nancy, and Peggy Lang to them and their heirs forever, the following Slaves and their increase (to wit), Tabitha, Belia, Thompson, Harry, Phil, Jm Blaney, Willis, James, Rainey and Franky, which said Slaves were lent to my wife during her life. My Slaves not of the Boston Family and not before given away with their increase, I give at the death of my wife may be equally divided between my Daughters Sally Martha and Charlotte Lang, to be possessed by them and their heirs forever but in case either of my said daughters Sally Martha or Charlotte should marry before my wife's death, the one marrying shall be intitled to her part of the said Slaves in the same manner as if my wife had died. I desire that such of my stock not given away as may be thought by my executors to be unnecessary for the use of my plantations which I have directed to be kept up may be sold and the proceeds of such Sales I desire may be equally divided among all my children after all my Just debts are paid. I desire that the remaining part of my money ^{withstanding} in hand or to be collected may be equally divided between all my children. I give to my daughters Nancy and Peggy Lang one bed (and furniture each). Lastly I nominate and appoint Samuel Blunt and Ethelred Edmund both of this county executors of this my last will & Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this eighteenth day of June in the year one thousand
