

1823-20 SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY
CHANCERY PAPERS

COBB VS. TURNER

9/1823

Cott. 7 Bee
Quinn

Sept. 1823 J. J. Frankes -

This day personally appeared before me a justice of the peace for the County of Putnam. Edmund Cobb who swore to the allegations in the within bill contained given under my hand & seal this 15th Sept: 1873

H. Daughtry J.P.

To the worshipful the County Court of St. Louis in Chancery Sitting. Humbly Complaining sheweth unto your worshipps. your orator Redmond Cobb. that sometime past a certain Elizabeth Turner. instituted a suit against your orator in this Court for the amount of —. due on a bond.

That antecedent to that time the said Turner had become indebted to your orator in the sum of $10.76. by means of Order drawn upon him by her. — & ~~two~~ ^{two} ~~times~~ ^{times} paid by him either at her request or where the law made him liable at suit like to him afterwards. — That shortly after the institution of the suit. your orator employed Counsel. to attend to his defence & put into his hands. the vouchers to support the same which are herein contained — that the said Counsel partially attended this Court as a practitioner for some time & then totally abandoned it. by which means. and as your orator supposed. that his defence ^{had} would ~~be~~ ^{be} made. he did not understand the necessity of employing other Counsel. until the time at which an ~~proper~~ ^{proper} plea could have been put in by him had passed. — In under consideration whereof so much as your orator can only have remedy in a Court of equity for relief in the premises it is prayed. that your worshipps cause the said Elizabeth Turner to answer the premises. — That you grant the ~~Counsel~~ ^{Counsel} supp of injunctions &c. & other & general relief — and as in duty &c. — Redmond Cobb
