To the Honble. Judge of the Circuit Court of Southampton County, in Chancery sitting.

Humbly complaining shew unto Your Honors Compts., Wm. Prince, Abner D. Ligonier, & Rose J. Stanbison, that their infant brother Andrew Ligonier, has departed this life, under age, intestate, unmarried & without issue, leaving your Compts. & Mary Ann, wife of W. L. J. Ligonier, his distributees, & entitled to his whole Estate.

That at the Term of the County Court of Southampton, W. L. J. Ligonier was assigned Guardian to the said infant Andrew Ligonier, & received a large amount of money & other property belonging to his estate, & for which he has not yet accounted. That Ligonier entered into bond according to law, as such Guardian, with D. M. Mason his security, a copy of which bond is herewith filed & a part of this Bill.

That the Estate of Andrew Ligonier has been committed to the hands of said Ligonier. If for as Southampton for admn., but as the intestate left no debt outstanding, it is not necessary that the Estate should pass into the hands of the admn., & might be drawn at once to those entitled to the Estate.

That your Compts. have applied to Ligonier to settle his accounts as Guardian, & give to them whatever may be due to them, & yet he has declined to accede to their demand, although reasonable & just.

In consideration of all which, & inasmuch as your Compts. are without remedy or satisfaction in the County Court, & so the end thereof that adequate relief may be afforded by further full administration, your Compts. pray that W. L. J. Ligonier, as late Guardian of Andrew J. Prince, said Ligonier, & Mary Ann, his wife, & distributees, do call upon & satisfy said Ligonier, as late Guardian of Andrew J. Prince, to show the interest of the Bill, & consents to answer the allegations fully & satisfactorily.

That W. L. J. Ligonier be compelled to render an account of his transactions as the late Guardian of Andrew J. Prince before a Comm. of this Court, that you have well secured the amounts which he is entitled to be due to you. Comptroller respectively to be paid to them, & guarantee of other & general relief in the premises as Equity may dictate to the instance of the case may require.

May it please the Court so. Chamberliff. J. J.
