To the Honorable Joseph Wychant judge of the county Court of Southampton in chancery sitting

Humbly complaining your orator D.L.
Dole late sheriff of Southampton County and as such administrator de bonis non with the will annexed of Mordecai Bradshaw - did shew unto your Honor that in the year 1861 his testator obtained a judgment against Samuel Kells for $300 with interest from the 4th of December 1858 till paid and costs $6.71cs which judgment is still outstanding and unpaid, he sheweth further that Mordecai H. Bradshaw qualifies as executor first and that his powers were revoked and the estate committed to the hands your Orator, that on the 25th day of July 1870 a scire facias was issued against the said Samuel Kells returnable to September rules 1870 to show cause in any he could why an execution should not issue against him on the said judgment and that the said case is set for trial at the November term 1870 of this court, Your Orator states further that the said Samuel Kells has offered to pay him the sum of $300 the principal due in discharge of the debt in full, Your orator thinks it would be to the interest of the estate to accept the offered compromise but does not feel authorized to do so without the order of the court which has full power to do so as the parties in interest being before the court, The Legatus and devisees of Mordcai Bradshaw an as follows his widow Amy Bradshaw, Mordcai G. Bradshaw John Hain and Sarah his wife who is a child of Mordcai Bradshaw and four infant children Am G. Marthe, Susan S. and David Bradshaw

In tender consideration whom of and inasmuch as you ^{orator} is without relief in the premises at law and only entitled to relief in a court of equity when such matters are peculiarly cognizable the petitioner prays that Amy Bradshaw Mordcai G. Bradshaw, John Hain and Sarah his wife Am G. Bradshaw, Marthe Bradshaw, Susan S. Bradshaw and David Bradshaw the four last infants by some fit and proper person their guardian ad litem appointed for that purpose may be made parties defendant to this bill and that the court would compel them as full and perfect answer make to the allegations therein contained as if they had been themselves more fully and specially interrogated and that the court would authorize your orator to make the said compromises and grant such other and general relief the premises considered as equity may dictate and the nature of this case may require and as in duty bound your orator will ever pray
