Southampton County - Chancery

Greene, James vs Greene, Ann

"Hivore"

James Greene. ¹⁰⁰ 112 is 3 Pile for dinner Ann Greene.

1882. April Rules

To the Hon George Blom Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Southampton

In Chancery sitting.

Complaining sheweth unto the Court your Complainant James Greene, who is now years of age, that on the 20th of 18 in the County of Southampton he was married to Ann Greene, as appears from the marriage License therein marked A: and asked to be taken as part of this bill. Your Complainant further states that after their intermarriage his wife the said Ann Greene remained with him for

I after that time did wilfully desert & abandon him, & since that time has been living in a state of adultery with other parties, & leading a loose & adulterous life. Your Complainant further states that during the time he remained with her he was a constant faithful & dutiful husband, giving her no cause to desert or abandon him, & Your Complainant is advised, by authority vested ~~with~~ in your "Honors" under Section Chapter Code of Virginia 1873, that he is entitled to be liberated & absolved from further marriage liabilities. Your Complainant further states that they are without issue & such marriage; but since the desertion of his wife she has given birth to a white child - In tender consideration to the said therefore your complaints pray that the said Ann Green may be made a defendant to this bill, so as to render a full true & perfect answer to the same that your complaints may be entirely disowned from her, & the marriage be dissolved, & your honor will grant such other & further relief as his case requires & equity may seem meet. May it please your complaint will ever pray -
