TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT R. PRENTIS, JUDGE OF THE CIR-CUIT COURT OF SOUTHAMPTON COUNTY, VIRGINIA:

Humbly complaining, your complainant, W. P. Vick, showeth unto the Court that he recovered against J. T. Doles two judgments - one for Seventy-six & 21/100 ($76.21) Dollars, with interest thereon from the 9th. day of May 1894, until paid and $1.30 costs: the other for Forty ($40.) Dollars, with interest thereon from the 10th. day of July 1899, untill paid and $7.18 costs, both of said judgments being rendered in a justice court of Southampton County, Virginia, and duly docketed in the clerk's office of the County Court of Southampton County, Virginia, as will appear from an abstract of said judgments filed with this bill as exhibits 'A' and 'B' respectively and prayed to read as a part of this bill. Of the said judgments, though execution issued thereon, no pat thereof has been paid and your complainant does not believe that any part of the said judgments can be made out of the personality of the said J. T. Doles; that he, the said J. T. Doles, is the fee-simple owner of a house and lot in the town of Ivor, Virginia, said lot being, in size 210 x 73 feet and fronting on the County Road that runs through the said town and known as Main Street. It being the same property now occupied by the said J. T. Doles as a residence. Your complainant avers and charges that the rents and profits of the said house and lot will not in five years satisfy your complainant's said judgments and that he is intitled to enforce the lien of the same by a sale of the said property.

In tender consideration whereof and forasmuch as your complainant is without remedy save in a court of equity where such matters are alone and properly cognizable, he prays that the said J. T. Doles and his wife, Louisa L. Doles, be made parties defendant to this suit and required to answer this bill,

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF LANDS AND MINES

TO THE HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

though answer under oath is hereby expressly waived; that proper process issue; that all proper orders and decrees may be made and inquiries directed; that if it shall appear that the said rents and profits of the said real estate will not in five years satisfy your complainants said judgments that the said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof be applied to the payment of your complainant's said judgments; that if such rents will so suffice, the said land be rented out and the rents and profits thereof be applied to the payment of the said judgments until they are fully paid: and that all such other, further and general relief may be given your complainant as the nature of his case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

And your complainant will ever pray, &c.
