1905-09 Southampton County Chancery Hart, R. M. vs Hart, Bessie

Divorce

Mark R.M. v 3 Bill Eq
Mark Rivers

To the Honorable Robert R. Prentis, Judge of the Circuit Court for Southampton County.

In Chancery

Complaining, showeth unto the Court your orator Robert M. Hart, that on the 6th day of May 1903. he married his present wife, Bessie Hart, as will appear by a certified copy of the marriage license, hereunto filed as Exhibit "A." as a part of this bill. That he has lived with since that time resides and resident of the County of Southampton.

That for some months they lived together in peace and harmony, and your orator did every thing in his power for her happiness and contentment; that he provided for her every want in so far as he could, and was at all times faithful to his marriage vow, and to her.

That notwithstanding all of this, his said wife Bessie Hart was reckless in her behavior, and criminal in her disregard of the marriage vow to the extent of committing adultery. all of which happened at Boykins in Southampton County.

That so soon as your orator was in possession of facts justifying him in this belief, he immediately ceased all marital relations with her, and compelled her to leave his home and protection, and has not since that time recognized her as his wife.

In tender Consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your orator is remediless in the premises, save in a Court of equity, he prays that the said Bessie Hart may be made party defendant to this bill, and be required to answer the same, but not on oath, the same being hereby waived; that he may be divorced from her a vinculo matrimonii, and all of her contingent rights of every nature in your orator's real and personal estate may be forever barred, and that such other relief may be granted him as the nature of his case may require or to equity shall seem meet. And your orator will ever pray &c.

suit? A. Yes.

Q. Where were they living when you knew them?

A. At Boykins, Virginia.

Q. In what business was R.M.Hart? A. Hotel keeper.

Q. Did you know his wife at the same time? A. Yes sir.

Q. This is a suit for divorce absolute, brought by R.M.Hart against Bessie Hart, his wife; do you know her ever having violated her marriage vow as to chastity?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know of her ever having had sexual intercourse with any man other than her husband? A. Yes sir.

Q. How many times do you know that to have happened?

A. I don't know that, how many times.

Q. Do you know it to have happened many times?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Explain how you know these facts? A. By self experience is about all I know. I just know it is so.

Q. You mean to say then that you, yourself, had sexual intercourse with her while she and R.M.Hart were living together,at Boykins,as husband and wife? A. Yes sir.

Q. What were you doing at Boykins? A. Working with the Southern Bell Telephone Co.

Q. How long after you first met her before you had sexual intercourse with her? A. One day.

Q. Were you stopping at the hotel kept by R.M.Hart?

A. Yes sir.

D. S. PHLEGAR
STENOGRAPHER
NORFOLK, - VIRGINIA

Q. Please state the first time and place you had sexual intercourse with her? A. It was on Sunday night about eight o'clock in the left hand front room facing the railroad.

Q. Was that room what is known as the parlor? A. I don't know whether they call it the parlor or not; they had a room on each side of the hall.

Q. Can you recall what month and what year?

A. December last year. It was the first of December or the last of November, because I left there on the 11th of December.

Q. Was this at her suggestion or at your suggestion that you had sexual intercourse? A. Partly both. She asked me not to go to church, that she wanted to see me, and I stayed there.

Q. What did she tell you when you stayed and she saw you?

A. A lot of mess; she told me she had been married four months, and that the old man had never stayed with her but one night, and she wanted a better man.

Q. I suppose she suggested to you that you were a better man?

A. I don't know whether I was a better man or not. I know I satisfied myself; I don't know whether I satisfied her or not.

Q. After this, did you have sexual intercourse with her on other occasions? A. Yes sir.

Q. Please state the time and places? A. I can't do that, because I don't know.

Q. Were the places all at Boykins? A. Yes sir.

D. S. PHLEGAR
STENOGRAPHER
NORFOLK, - VIRGINIA

Q. Were they in the various rooms of the hotel?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did she go to your room or did you go to her room?

A. She came to my room.

Q. Although you say you can not tell the number of times, you do know that you had sexual intercourse with her several times?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did she ever in your presence and in the presence off another man, all three being present at the same time, talk about having sexual intercourse with men? A. Yes sir.

Q. Please state the time and circumstances? A. I don't know what time it was. It was at night, about nine o'clock or eight o'clock any way. He had been after her to come to his room that night, I suppose, and she told him she couldn't do it, that she was going to stay with me, or words to that effect.

Q. (And further this deponent saith not).

Office of Commissioner
In Chancery Circuit Court
Greenville Co. Va.
May 2. 1904.

The depositions of E. J. Ferman and others taken before me E Peyton Turner a ~~justice of the Commissioner~~ in chancery of the Circuit Court of Greenville County Virginia pursuant to notice here attached taken in the Chancery cause of A. M. Hart against Bessie Hart. Taken in my office this 2nd day of May 1904.

Present: J. W. Gilmore Attorney for Complainant.

Defendant not represented.

The witness E. J. Ferman being first duly sworn, deposes & says:

Q. 1 What is your age, residence and do you know the parties to this suit also your occupation.

A. I am 35 yrs of age, live at Warrenton N.C. I know the parties; my occupation. Am travelling salesman for Augustus Wright & Co of Petersburg Va.

Q. 2 When did you last see Mrs R. M. Hart the defendant in Boykins Va

A. I dont recall when I last saw her-

I stopped at Mr Harts Hotel on or about 19th of May 1903 and saw her there - This was the last time I stopped
there - that I remember.

Q. 3. What occurred at this time, if any thing, that makes you remember this trip?

A. I remember the date by looking back on my order book, and I remember the occasion by reason of a conversation
had with the defendant Mr Hart's wife.

Q. What was the conversation?

A. On the morning after 19th of May 1903
I went to Boykins on arriving there on early train arriving there about 6. a.m.
& remained there until departure of the Roanoke & Tar River train about
11. a.m - during this time, I saw Mrs Hart go into the parlor with a man whose name I did not then know (after learned was named Patrick) this was done several times during the morning when no one was in the house save me - I was in the office lying on lounge - On one occasion she came in & I told her that I had seen what was going on, by means of a mirror

across the corner of the office reflecting the image to where I was lying. (I was not in the range of the door.) She then told me that she didn't know what was the matter with her, that she never had any passion before she was married, and that old man didn't do anything but set he afire. She then told me that I could have connection with her if I wanted to. I got up & went out in the hall. She told me when I came back to stop over there & she would give me a good time. When I came back I went to the other Hotel, because I didn't care to be placed in this kind of temptation again. She also on the occasion above put her arms around me.

Q. Are you single or married?

A. I am married. Have been married twelve years.

And further this deponent saith not.

E. J. Freeman

The Witness R. M. Hart being duly sworn deposes and says:

Q. 1. What is your age, residence and relation to this suit?

A. Am 54 years of age, live at Boykins Va. and am Complainant in the bill of complaint.

Q. 2 Why did you bring this divorce suit against your wife?

A Because I caught her in positions that I thought no lady ought to have been in.

Q. 3. To what did you refer?

A. On several occasions before this, I had noticed that she was too familiar with men slipping in the house, strangers to her, and had spoken to her about it, not that I suspected her of improper motives, but to warn her against what I thought was simply ~~rather~~ youthful indiscretions.

On the day, or rather night to which I now refer, namely 29th November 1903 (Sunday) I had occasion to go out of the House, and in passing out of the front where it was very dark, I was amazed to find my wife sitting out there in the dark on the railing of the front by the side of a young man named Bowd. Bryant whom she had never seen before the previous day. I went out staying about fifteen minutes and upon returning she was still on the perch she was talking to him in very low tones of voice. by the young man Bryant. when she came into the house I was in the dinning room directing the Coal Man to close down up, and she wanted to know if I was going with her to Church, I replied "No not with you". and further told her, that the sooner she left there the better for her, and I never spoke to her again till the following morning.

Q. Did you see her again in an improper position, if so when where and how.

A. Yes on the following morning, after breakfast, I went out to the Lot near by to feed my horses, - and before I was half through feeding I noticed smoke in considerable volumes coming out of the room occupied by Bryant, and fearing that he had left fire in his room which might do some damage, I hastened back to the Hotel and upon entering the house - and looking up the stairs, I saw my wife coming out of Bryant's room - when she saw me, she asked me if I wanted to see her. I answered "no, I hope I never will see you again". She remarked, "I was just in there cleaning up his room" - to which I replied, "How many times did you ever clean up rooms in the morning" -

Q. 5. Did she not sometimes clean up rooms in the morning?

A. Never did -

Q. 6. Was Bryant in the room at the time you saw her coming out of it?

A. He was - I saw him in there myself - and he told me she asked him why he did not come to her room on the previous night - that I had not been in there at all - to which he replied, that she must be a d— n fool, as she was trying to get him killed -

Q. 7 When did she hear your house?

A. On the Tuesday morning following

Q. 8. Did you ever have any conversation with H C Brumfield in connection with your wife and if so what was it?

A. Yes. I can best state what he told me by filing his sworn statement, which I here hand the Commissioner - marked "A."

The Commissioner files said statement marked "A."

Q. 9. Did he state these facts in your presence -

A. Yes. he did -

Q. 10. Have you lived with her since the night you saw him & Bryant on the porch -

A. No.

Boykins, Va., FEB 11 1904 190

On, or about, Maythe 10th., 1903., I was at Mr. R. M. Hart's Hotel, Boykins, Va., said Hart's wife put her armes around me and said she was the most pasionate woman living; said when her husband, Mr. Hart, left the house she would ge te my room which she did not have the chance te do.

On, or about August the 5th., 1903., I was at Mr. Hart's Hotel, Mr. Hart was crowded for room, he gave his own room to his wife and her sister. She told me that when everyone went te bed she weukd come to my room. There were seven traveling men who came in on the late train and one of them was put in my room so this broke up this arrangement.

On, or about Oct., 20th., 1903., I was again at Mr. Hart's, on this occasion Hart was sick in bed, his wife came to in the office where I was, sat on the sofa and pulled up her dress above her knees and asked me what I thout of her limbs. She came over to me and sat on my lap; said she was dissatisfied with hw her home and Mr. Hart, her husband, and asked me to take her away somewhere; said she would go with me anywhere. She wrote me a letter in which she said she had an Aunt in Welden, N.C., and asked me to let her knew when I would be there and she would meet me there and go with me anywhere I would take her; said she loved me and would always be true to me .
