

entered into or executed by any person or persons whatsoever before or after passing this act were the whole or any part of the consideration of such promise agreement conveyances or security shall be for money or other valuable thing whatsoever won laid or betted at cards dice tables tennis bowls or any other game or games whatsoever or at any horse race cock fighting or other sport or pastimes or on any wager whatsoever or for the reimbursing or repaying any money knowingly lent advanced for such uses to any person or persons so gaming betting or wagering or that shall at such time and place so play or bet or wager shall be utterly void frustrate and of no effect to all intents & purposes whatsoever any law custom or usage to the contrary notwithstanding which said act of assembly is still in force no wise made void or repealed and the said John and Timothy in fact say that the said promissory note in the declaration of the said Robert mentioned was by them the said John and Timothy granted to the said Robert for the said sum of eight pounds twelve shillings which said sum of eight pounds twelve shillings was by the said Robert won from the said John at a horse racing within the intent and meaning of the act of assembly aforesaid to wit on the eighth day of October 1802 at the parish and county aforesaid and this they are ready to verify wherefore they pray judgment wheather the said Robert ought to have his said action against them the said John and Timothy

Richard Richs

PM

Henry Thomas & Martha his wife & others

In Chancery

Continued till the next court on the Motion of the defendant

Joseph Allen

PM

William Byrneson & Arthur Washington

In Chancery

Continued till the next court on the Motion of the defendants

Benjamin Clifton

PM

William Simmons

def

In Trespas

Continued till the next court

Arthur Davis

PM

Henry Pope

def

In Case

Continued till the next court