On a writ of scire facis for four hundred and fifty five pounds of sweet tobacco

The defendants by their attorney comes and defends the force and injury whereof and says that the said writ of scire facis in full manner and form as the same is prosecuted and sued out of this court - and the subject-matter therein contained are in law insufficient for-them the said plaintiff to be intitled to the their execution thereupon against the said Defendants for the said four hundred and fifty five pounds of tobacco and that they are not by the law of the land bound to answer thereto in manner and form as the same is made whereupon he prays judgment. And the said plaintiff by his attorney in answer as they have above alleged sufficient matter in law to have their said execution agst the said defendant for the the said four hundred and fifty five pounds of tobacco in form aforesaid which he is ready to verify whereupon he prays judgment a before and that his said execution for the four hundred and fifty five pounds of tobacco against the said defendants may be awarded to them
