Chancery Cause. William Peterson vs James Coats

Isle of Wight County

To the worshipful Court of Isle of Wight County sitting in Chancery humbly complaining sheweth unto your Worships your Orator William Paterson - That a certain James Coats on or about the 7th day of February 1788 executed his Note of hand unto your Orator for the Sum of £30..16..10, To which pay. well & truly to be made the said James did bind himself in the penal Sum of £61..13..8. - and your Orator instituted a Suit agt. the said James for the Recovery of the s.^d Sum of Money, which s.^d Suit is now depending in the worshipful Court - That not long after these Transactions the said James issued a petition Summons agt. your Orator for the Sum of £4..2..4, and your Orator nor his Attorney not being present when the said petition came on for Trial, a Judge passed agt. your s.^d Orator for the s.^d Sum of £4..2..4, notwithstanding the said James Coats' Note to your Orator now remains in full force. But now so it is the s.^d James Coats notwithstanding the premises, ~~that~~ threatens your Orator with an Execution on his s.^d Judgt. which your Orator thinks is contrary to Equity & good Conscience In tender Consideration whereof and for as much as your Orator is only relievable in Equity To the End therefore that the s.^d Coats may ~~not~~ be made ~~subject~~ to this Bill & be compelled on his Oath full Answer to make threats in so full manner as if the same were here repeated. And your Orator prays that he may be allowed to discount ~~the said note~~ ^{the} Sum of ~~£200~~ £2..0..0 part of the s.^d Judgt. out of the s.^d Coats' Note of hand and that the s.^d Coats and all his Confederates may be perpetually enjoined from proceeding on the s.^d Judgt. and your Orator have such other Relief as is agreeable to Equity & good Conscience. May it please yr. &c.

Isle of Wight County 1790 1790 and ~~James Coats~~ made Oath before me to the above Bill according to law.

James W. H. H.

Know all men by these presents that we William Patterson and Francis Young are held and firmly bound unto James Coats in the just and full sum of ten pounds two shillings & four pence ———— County of Virginia To the which payment we bind our selves our heirs & assigns jointly and severally firmly by these presents sealed with our Seals and dated this 11th Day of August 1799.

The Condition of this obligation is such that whereas the said James Coats hath obtained Judgment at Common Law against the said William Patterson in the County Court of Isle of Wight for four pounds two shillings & four pence ———— and Costs and the s^d William Patterson hath obtained an Injunction to stay the Execution of the said Judgment until the hearing of the matter in Equity upon a Bill filed for that purpose if therefore the said William Patterson shall Satisfy and pay the said Judgment at common Law full Costs & Damages that shall be awarded to the said James Coats in case the said Injunction shall be dissolved then the above obligation to be void and else to remain in full force & Virtue ————
