Chancery Causes' Edwards Davis vs David Blaney

Isle of Wight County

To the worshipful Court of Isle of Wight County sitting in Chancery, humbly complaining sheweth unto the Court your orator Edwards Davis —

That some time ago, your orator had some transactions with David Blaney, who kept regular accounts against him. That on or about the day of the amount of the account of the said Blaney against him was eleven pounds, four Shillings and ten pence $\frac{1}{4}$ upon which he then instituted suit That at the trial of the said cause your orator had no attorney present to make his defence, which is that he had satisfied the said Blaney the ~~sum~~ amount of the aforesaid account, by discharging the same — that by the said omission in not setting up the aforesaid defence, at the when the jury were sworn a judgment of ment against your Orator for the amount of £11. 4. 10. ^{1/4} aforesaid, and that he is now thereon with an execution upon the same - which is a great hardship as he furnished Money with plank to ~~the~~ amount of £11. 0. 0. which he agreed to take for the debt - on tender consideration whereof and for as much as your Orator is hindered in the premises except by the interference of this Worshipful -

To the end therefore your Orator prays that the judgment aforesaid may be enjoined and that all further proceedings on the said judgment may be stayed until this matter can be more fairly heard in this Worshipful Court -

May it please Your

Rich^d. G. Bryant P. 2

September the 3^d 1798

This Day Edwards Davis appeared before me, and swore that the allegations in the foregoing bill are true -
