Chancery Causes. Arthur Channell, admr of Samuel Bowden vs. Nathaniel Hrag's ditor & d

Isle of Wight County

Other SURNAMES: Bunkley

Channell
vs
Gray Exr - &c. } Bill

November 1812

bill filed & rule for Ans.

May 1816

dismissed

To the worshipfull Court of Isle of Wight in Chancery Sitting Humbly Complaining sheweth unto the Court your orator Arthur Channell Administrator de bonis non on the estate of Lemuel Bowden decd. That Complainants intestate died many years since intestate possessed of a considerable personal estate of his own proper goods and Chattells. That the administration thereof was committed by this worshipfull Court, to one Joshua Bunkley, who, some time afterwards died, leaving the estate unadministered, and by his last Will and testament appointed one Nathl Gray his executor, who qualified as such and took upon himself the duties of executor accordingly.-- That said Nathaniel also died without having settled ~~on~~ ~~in~~ any manner accounted for the said Bowdens estate, which was in the hands of his testator. He also made a Will and constituted Josiah Gray his executor, who qualified as such -- Your orator having been qualified as Administrator of the unadministered part of the said Bowdens estate and being desirous to perform the duties belonging thereto -- which he cannot do untill he has an account of the former administration -- to wit, of Bunkley, On the said Bowdens estate. To this end he has often applied to the said Josiah Gray, executor of Nathl Gray Who was Executor of said Joshua Bunkley, for a conveyance of the said Bowdens estate which came to said Bunkleys

and a just account thereof; but the said Josiah Gray, under various frivolous & false pretences, & with a view to injure and defraud your Orator in this behalf, refuses to render any account whatsoever of the said Bowdens estate.

In tender Consideration whereof and forasmuch as your Orator is only and properly relievable in this honourable Court to the end therefore he prays that the said Josiah Gray be made a defendant to this bill and full, true and perfect answer make to all and singular its allegations. More especially, that he set forth and discover every article of the estate of Bowdens which came to the possession of Bunkley, as the first admr., & the value thereof, what annual profits of any other part of the said Bowdens estate real, or personal came to his (Bunkley) hands, and how the whole estate has been disposed of - by Bunkley in his life time, by Nathl Gray, his executor, Or by the defendant Josiah. That the afd. be decreed to account before Commissioners for the said Bowdens estate - and to pay & deliver over to your Complainant - whatever balance - or unadministered part remains in his hands as the Exr of N. Gray who was Exr of said Bunkley. - Lastly, your Orator prays for such other order or decree for his relief, benefit and the promotion of equity as shall, by the Court, be deemed just & necessary. -
May it please &c.
