vs. B. Whithead, Chaas. Murphy and John P. Thurn, Debitors of the S^t Sarah N. Cobb in her aforesaid former guardian bond, may be made parties defendants to this Bill; that each of them may upon their several oaths true & perfect Answer give & make to the several matters and things herein before set forth, as fully as if the same were him again repeated and particularly interrogated to be answered unto; That the said R. W. Bridgton as Ex^r of the said John B. Young deceased, may be decreed to render a true & perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels & credits of the said deceased; which have or ought to have come to his hands - and also a just and true account of his actings & doings herein; and that he may more especially answer the charges & allegations particularly made against him in this Bill - And that the said Sarah N. Cobb Guardian of George Anna Cobb, Elizabeth & James Cobb, may be required to render an account of her guardian ship transactions, setting forth in her answer, the sums received by her as such guardian, from whom & when and the disposition made of the funds so received by her, for what purpose expended, and under what authority expended; And that the sums ascertained to be due from the said Reck. W. Bridgton as aforesaid; and the said Sarah N. Cobb as said Guardian, may be decreed to be paid by them, or their respective Debitors aforesaid, to the said Dampson White, Elijah Cook, Watson P. Jordan of said Anthony S. Roykin, and any other creditor of the s^t J. B. Young, who may choose to be made parties to this Suit; in satisfaction of their respective demands as far as may be - That Sarah N. Cobb may disclose the amount received by her from the sale of the Land to Merrill Noble & any other sum received by her from the estate of the said J. B. Young - So that she may be decreed to pay the same to the said Creditors - and also that Grayland Shp. P. administrator of Mary Louisa Cobb Dec^d may render an account of his administration of said Estate, and be decreed to pay the balance, if any, in like manner - That the said Merrill Noble may disclose in his answer when & to whom he paid the Bonds executed by him for the purchase of the Farnesville tract and whether he did not know & believe at the time he made the said Payments, that the monies paid by him were not to be applic-ed to the satisfaction of the debts & liabilities of the testator J. B.

Young Dec^d, as well as answer generally to the other charges.
And that if necessary the said Merrill Noble may be decreed to repay the sums of money already paid by him for the said tract, in satisfaction of the creditors of the said J. B.
Young deceased, or that in default thereof the said tract of Land may be decreed to be used for that purpose - That the said Dampson White, Elijah Cook, Watson P.
Jordan, Anthony Roykin & all other Creditors of the said J. B. Young, if any, may be compelled to seek & obtain satisfaction of their respective demands by a decree to be rendered herein in the premises, as far as may be, and that in the mean time they & all other Creditors be enjoined from prosecuting, or in any other manner seeking redress from your Honor for the recovery of the said demands; And that your Honor would grant your Orator such ^{particular} relief as may be necessary any & proper in the premises, and consistent with Law & Equity. May it please the Court to grant a Decree.

sheriff of Isle of Wight County { if he have assets } for the amounts received by them from the said estate of J. B. Young, before your brother can be properly chargeable with the said demands. - She is further advised that she has a right to convene the ^{2d} Rich^d W. Bidgood, Ex^r of the ^{2d} J. B. Young & Joseph B. Whitehead, Miles & Daniel, Josiah Dwyer and James Thomas his securities as aforesaid in the official bond of the said Ex^r, before this Court, and compel the ^{2d} Ex^r to render a fair and legal account of his executor's ship - rendering him & his said securities liable for any default he may have committed, and according to the creditors of the ^{2d} J. B. Young &c &c, satisfaction, in the first instance, out of the balance that may be found to be due from the ^{2d} Ex^r, on such settlement - Your brother is also advised that the ^{2d} Sally R. Cobb as guardian of Elizabeth, James J. & George Anna and her securities in her general guardian bond, will be compelled to refund to the ^{2d} Rich^d W. Bidgood as Ex^r as aforesaid, in relief of his securities any amount that she may have received as such Guardian from the ^{2d} Ex^r for their supposed interest in the personal estate of the said J. B. Young - And that Sarah R.
Cobb and the sheriff of Isle of Wight County.

and administrator of Mary Louisa Cobb &c will be also responsible in like manner - your brother believes that the said Sampson White, Elijah Cook & Watson P. Lord are assignees of Ch. J. Boykin and in the under hand are entitled obtain entire satisfaction of their debts without seeking money & payment from your brother. And she is advised that a Court of Equity can & ought to relieve her from the burthen of the said debts, by enforcing satisfaction from them on whom the burthen properly rests. - In consideration whereof & for as much as your brother is only relievable in the premises in a Court of Equity, To the end that for that the said Rich^d W. Bidgood, individually & as Ex^r of the ^{2d} J. B.

= of Land - your Oratrix is advised and so charges that the said tract of Land called Hearnsville - now held by Merit Noble as herein stated is yet liable to the demands of the Creditors of the said young, as it was before the alleged sale & purchase by ^{2d} Noble - Because ^{1st} Altho it is believed to be the general rule of law, as she is advised that a purchaser of an estate charged with the payment of debts generally { the debts not being specific } is not bound to the application of his purchase money; yet where a purchaser has notice, as from the intrinsic nature of the transaction, that his money will not be applied in satisfaction of the charges created by the wife, he will thus become a party to the breach of trust & consequently, even after his money is paid, will be liable to creditors. And your Oratrix expressly charges that the said Noble had such notice, as will render him liable on this principle - 2nd If not thus liable, your Oratrix is advised that the said Noble, has no title to the said tract under the Conveyance from Ridgwood as Commissioner, made in pursuance of the decrees aforesaid and consequently he is not a complete purchaser without notice.
For your Oratrix is advised that the conveyance of the said Comptee { Ridgwood }, of the infants portion of the said tract - viz three fifths will confer no title effectual against creditors, altho the money is paid, unless the authority vested in the said Commissioner, by the decrees of the Court of Chancery of High County in the suit before referred to as Exh't No. 7. be in strict conformity to law - And she is further advised that the proceedings in said suit were so essentially irregular and defective, that the title now set up by the said Noble to the said tract, under the said decrees, will not be effectual against the claims of creditors of the said J. B. Young to be satisfied out of the said Land. And your Oratrix further charges that in any event, as the Sarah N. Cobb as guardian of George Anna, James, & Elizabeth have received from the said Merit Noble the purchase money for the said Land which her 5th Wards were respectively entitled, and having given Bond - with security as herein stated to invest the proceeds that she & the R. Charles Murdock & Richard W. Ridgwood, her securities will be responsible to the creditors of the said J. B. Young for the Amount

- James, Elizabeth & George Anna Cobb - ^{Exr.} Orator further charges that the Court of Isle of Wight County at the below term of the Court held for that County, in 1835 - being the term next ensuing that on which the said interlocutory decree for the sale of the land was rendered, which decree was pronounced at the September term 1835, required the said Sarah & Cobb as guardian of the said George Anna, James & Elizabeth Cobb, to enter into a bond with Charles Murphy and Richd. H. Bidgood as her sureties, in the penalty of three thousand dollars, conditioned as the law directs that she should invest the proceeds of the land to be sold, under a decree of the County Court of Isle of Wight, hereinafter mentioned and account for the same according to law. (a copy of which 5th bond your Orator would here file with her Bill as Exhibit No. 6.) and she would file also, herewith a copy of the record of the proceeding ^{Exhib. No. 6.} in the Suit before referred to as Exhibit No. 7. which she might may be taken as parts of ^{Exhib. No. 7.} her Bill. - It will be then seen that the sale made by Commissioner Bidgood to Mowble was confirmed by the Court, and your Orator is informed & so charges that the said Mowble has received a conveyance for the said tract of land called Seemsville from the S^r. Commissioner and the said devisees, and now holds & claims title to the same under the said conveyance and that he has paid in full the bonds charged by him as aforsaid, for the purchase money of the said premises.
He further charges that the moneys received by the S^r. Sarah & Cobb & Mary Louisa Cobb, and by Sally & Cobb as guardian as aforsaid for the infant devisees, were not applied in any manner to the payment of the debts of the testator Young, or in relief of the personally, nor were the moneys which came into the hands of Sarah & Cobb as guardian deposited according to the provision of the Bill, but that whole sum of $1750. received by them for the said tract has long since been expended in the support and maintenance of the said devisees - that Mary Louisa Cobb one of the devisees, has since parting the life interest, and that her estate has been committed to the Sheriff of Isle of Wight County, as will be seen by Exhibit No. 8. ^{Exhib. No. 8.} ^{who} ^{she} ^{believe} ^{and} ^{insolvent} that Sarah & Cobb the other devisees is also utterly insolvent, and she also being that Sarah & Cobb guardian to James, Elizabeth & George Anna Cobb, or that James Cobb & Elizabeth in their capacity, have wasted & utterly consumed all the estate of her wards, for which came to them after their arriving at the age of 21 years, and applying the entire procepal of her ward estate to their support, without any authority, and failing to render an account of her guardianship. And that the said guardian as well as her said wards are now also insolvent - And now your Orator would further charge & show unto your honor, that under the facts & circumstances above disclosed, from which it will be seen that the assets appropriated and charges specifically by the testator J. B. Young for the payment of his debts have been entirely wasted & misapplied by his said Executor, Bidgood, and his residuary devisees, The creditors of the said J. B. Young whose demands still remain unsatisfied have been deprived of the means of a just and immediate payment, or satisfaction at law, out of the assets so appropriated - That Sampson White & Elijah Cook instituted suits at law on the bonds held by them, executed by Bidgood & J. B. Young as his surety, herein before referred to, in this Court against your Orator as the devisee of the said J. B. Young, in which suits judgments were at the recent term of the Supt. Ct. (May) rendered in favour of your Orator on demurrer, by reason of the non-joinder of the heirs of the testator in the said actions - And your Orator has no doubt that they as well as Watson & Jordan assignees of Anthony G. Boykin the remaining creditors look to your Orator for satisfaction of their respective demands, and will proceed to suit speedy and summary mode for recovering recovery of their debts from her unless enjoined by this Court. ^{Exr.} Orator is advised that by the will, as well as by the general principles of law, the estate & property specifically bequeathed to her by the said will, is not ^{subject} sufficient to the demands of creditors, until the general fund in the hands of ^{the executor} Bidgood, and the land specifically charged with the payment of the testator's debts have been applied to that object. That even without the charge created by the will, the Seemsville estate, which passed to the Cobbs would have been subject to the debts of the testator, because they being the heirs of young, and taking the ^{same estate} said tract by the will, into which the law vests them as heirs, became seized of the said estate of land by descent, not by devise, and land descended is bound for debts before land devised. She is also advised that a Court of Equity will, under the circumstances of this case, as herein set forth, enjoin the creditors of the said J. B. Young from enforcing their demands against her as devisee, at this time & and will constrain them at the instance of your Orator, before its ~~permanent~~ forum and compel them to unite with her to secure satisfaction of their respective demands {if practicable} out of the general assets of the testator & out of the Seemsville tract

= the Co. Secures, who were a duty, and the said Bid good as Ex^{or} of J^W Young or and your oratrix as the devisee aforesaid, in which said Bill, the said grand Jury prayed a sale to be ordered of the tract of Land, called Fearnsville, more by virtue of the several acts of the General Assembly, regulating and prescribing the mode of making sale of the Real Estates of Infants, and that the proceeds of such sale might be applied under the direction of the Court in discharge of the debts of the said Tutor - thereby relieving from this burthen, the personal estate and more especially the Slaves of the said testator in the possession of his Executor as therein specified which after the payment of said debts would be left over to the said devisees - but which, unless thus relieved, it was alleged in the Bill, it would be necessary to sell for the payment of said debts. To a Bill with such an object your oratrix could not object, and altho she is not advised of the necessity of making her a party to that suit, she readily answered, and insisted that the property included in the residuary clause of the Will was subject to the payment of the testator's debts, before the property she peculiarly requested to your oratrix could be touched for that purpose - a construction of the Will affirmed by the Complainants own Bill. The answers of the other defendants conformed to the prayer of the Bill - yet notwithstanding all this the County Court of Isle of Wight City, not conforming its decree in the premises to the Bill and answers, and to the Acts of the Assembly, under which alone that Court could derive any authority for ordering a sale of the land belonging to the infants Elizabeth, James & George Anna Cobb, made a general decree for the sale of the Fearnsville tract, appointing R. W. Bidgood a special commissioner for that purpose, to sell the land on a credit & take from the purchaser five bonds of equal amounts, to be returned to Court for a further disposition to be made of them - Your oratrix charges that at this sale which was made on the 5th day of October 1835, one Merit Womble became the purchaser at the price of eighteen hundred & forty dollars, of which he paid in cash the sum $89.93, being the expenses of the suit & sale, and for the balance of $1750. ⁽¹⁾ he executed five bonds in the sum $350. each payable, in 12 mo. after date, to Sarah N. Cobb, Mary Louisa Cobb, James Cobb, Elizabeth Cobb & George Anna Cobb, ^{with jointly} which bonds the said Bidgood returned to the Court; and which the sd. Court by its judgment only directed should be delivered over to Sarah N. Cobb & Mary Louisa Cobb, and to Sarah N. Cobb guardian to = the said debts had been paid him by the said young, before his death.

3^d In omitting to credit the estate with money hires of negroes belonging to his testator. 3^d In postponing the payment of money debts and Bonds, carrying interest, due by the said Testator when there were funds in his hands, with which he ought to have paid the same and thereby increasing the charges against said estate. 4th In omitting to credit the estate with the Bonds and Accounts belonging to & due his testator, at the time of his death and which were, or by due diligence might have been collected by him, and more particularly, in omitting to account for the proceeds of the Bonds & Accounts assigned by himself, to his testator in his lifetime, for his protection as his surety. And to apply the same, as in right & law he ought to have done. And in many other particulars not herein specified. 5th In paying over to the residuary legatees the balance admitted to be due by him, without taking a refunding Bond, and before ^{the} obligations of his testator were discharged. And your orator would further shew unto your Honor, that the tract of land, called Fearsville, herein before referred to, which by the will of the said Testator was embraced in the 3^d clause of his said Will, and was by the several words of the said clause, devised to Sally N. Cobb, Elizabeth, George Anna, Mary Louisa, and James J. Cobb (who were in fact the heirs at law of the said Testator, as he died without issue) was after the death of said young taken possession of by the said devisees, and held by them subject to the charge in the Will, raised, thereby, on said land for the payment of the testator's debts. That Sarah N. Cobb, was appointed guardian to Elizabeth, James J. and George Anna Cobb, (by the Court of Justices of Wight County) three of the devisees aforesaid who were infants & who gave bond as said guardian in the ^{sum of} bond of $3000.

continued according to law with Rich^d. W. Bedford, J.P.

Whitehead, Ch^l. Murphy and John P. Thomas as Sureties, which will be seen, by reference to the annexed Exhibit Ex^{hib} No. 5. That on the 3rd day of January 1835 at the Court House of said for use of Wight County on the 1st Monday of February next on being, the said Sarah N. Cobb as guardian to the said James, Elizabeth & George Anna Cobb exhibited her Will in the County Court of Wight County against, Sarah N. Cobb & Mary Louisa Cobb = the same, if it had been only applied for that purpose - The said Rich^d. W. Bidgood as Ex^r of the s^d John B. young possessed himself of all the personal estate of his testator, excepting the negroes & other personal property, specifically bequeathed to your orators - and made sale of the perishable estates; the proceeds of which sales amounting to $1681.⁴³ are credited in the Audit hereinafter referred to - That the "Residuum" of the testator's estate, or property devised by the s^d claim of the Will, after the payment of his debts, consisted (besides the perishable estate above mentioned), of a tract of land in Isle of Wight County, called Fearnsville, and the following slaves, viz. Rachael & four children, Maria & two children, old Naudale, young Naudale, Sam, Sally, Evelette, and young Evelette and Dick - Five shares of Stock in the Smithfield & Churchwater Company, and sundry Bonds and accounts, due said Testator. That the said ^{Ex^r} Testator has returned no inventory, or appraisement of his testator's estate to the Court of Isle of Wight County, as by Law he was required, from which neglect of the s^d Bidgood your orators, is unable to specify more particularly the effects which came, or by one diligence ought to have come into the hands of the said Ex^r. That a short time previous to the death of the said testator he became surety for the said Rich^d. W. Bidgood, in issuing Bonds or Specialties, executed by them jointly & severally, and binding them ^{separately} respectively, and amongst others in the following Bonds viz. one payable to Sampson White as guardian to the heirs of James White dec^d in the sum of $500. bearing date on the 19th - day of April 1834 and one on the said the same day, and the other bond for $200.00 payable on the 5th of Octo: 1834 to Elizabeth Cook.

and one other bond payable to Anthony S. Roggins and since assigned to William P. Jordan, in the sum of $1153.23. all which said noted Bonds, are still due & unpaid. That when the said Testator became surety as aforesaid for the said Rich^d. W.
Bidgood, he received from the said Bidgood an assignment of sundry Bonds and accounts, due said Bidgood amounting to $1000. ⁰⁰. which were to be collected by young, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the Bonds, for which he had become surety for him, or to be otherwise held as an indemnity for the said Surety-ship - That the said Bonds & accounts remaining uncollected at the death of said young, came into the possession of the said Bidgood as his Ex^r who has collected them, and fraudulently converted the proceeds to his own use. And omitted to apply the said proceeds to the payment of the aforementioned Bonds, or to credit his Testator's estate with the said proceeds, although he has in his ^{charge} Audit the payment of one of his own debts, for which his testator was surety. Your orators further charge that the s^d Rich^d. W. Bidgood has returned two several Audits of his executorial transactions, with the state of his s^d testator, which taken together the said Executor intended and designed should exhibit a complete and full & final account of his executorship, official copies of the said accounts are here filed as parts of this Bill & referred to, as Exhibit No. 4. From the said accounts it will appear, that the said Bidgood ^{as Ex^r} made sale of all the Slaves, and other personally not bequeathed to your orators, and that on the 5th day of April 1838. he paid over the sum of $257.⁷ the balance appearing by that account to be due from him as Executor, to the residuary legacies mentioned in the Bequest of his testator's Will. or to their guardian Mary Sarah Cobb & altho^{ugh} the said Bidgood was of course aware that the Bonds executed by him, and by his testator as surety, to White, Cook and Roggins were unpaid, and that he himself at that time, was utterly insolvent and had no property, or expectation of paying them out of his own funds, he did not take from the s^d residuary legacies, or their guardians, Refunding Bonds to indemnify him for the s^d payment. But your orators charge that the said Audits referred to as Exhibit No. 4. are in several particulars false, defective & erroneous, and that the said Bidgood, as Executor is indebted to the estate of his testator - and ought to have had in his hands, a much larger balance, than that shown by the second Audit.

And the begs leave to make the following specifications, by way of Surcharge & Falsification of the said Audits - 1st The said Rich^d.
W. Bidgood, Ex^r as aforesaid has in his last Audit, ~~charged~~ charged the estate on the 6th of December 1835. with the sum $204.87 as the sum due the ~~estate~~ on bond & account; when in fact, when

To the honorable Richard B. Baker Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chy. for the County of Isle of Wight. I humbly complaining sheweth unto your Honor, your orator Francis W. Young of ^{1st} County, known and specified devisee of John B. Young decd. That the sd. John B.
Young, departed this life some time in the year 1834, having first duly made and published his last Will and Testament in writing, which was dated on the 19th day of March 1834, and an office copy of which is here filed and prayed to be taken as part of this Bill, Exhibit. No. 1. That the sd. Will was duly proved and admitted to probate in the County Court of Isle of Wight County on the 5th day of January 1835 by Rich^d. W. Bidgood, the executor therein named, who duly qualified as such & took upon himself the burden & execution thereof as well as appear by reference to Exhibit. No. 2. And entered into and acknowledged his bond, conditioned according to Law, with Joseph B. Whitehead, Miles Daniel, Josiah Joyner & James Thomas as his Securities in the penalty of $20,000, as will be seen by reference to an office copy of sd. bond here filed as Exhibit. No. 3. and prayed to be taken as part of this Bill. Your orator charges that the said testator in the second clause of his said Will gave bequeathed unto your orator, styled or called in the Will, "My beloved wife" the plantation on which he then lived, known by the name of Oyster-shell Neck & the same on which she now lives & every thing thereunto belonging, including the following negroes to wit: Willis, Ned, Peter, Silvia her child John, and her future increase, to her & her heirs forever. And by the 3^d & last clause, in the following words, devises as follows, "3^d - It is my desire after my just debts are paid "That the remainder of my property be equally divided between Sally "M. Cobb, Elizabeth, George Anne, Mary Louisa, and James J. Cobb, to "them & their heirs forever." Your orator charges that the said Rich^d W. Bidgood as Ex^r of the sd. John B. Young decd. appointed to the bequest of the slaves as aforesaid made to her, and that she ^{has} retained possession and enjoyed the full benefit of the devise made to her. That the said Testator owed debts at the time of his death as well on his own account, as security for the said R. W. Bidgood, but that the remainder of his property, or estate, which was specifically charged for the payment of his debts, was more than ample & sufficient to have paid Bedgood Executor of the said Frances K. Young dec. and others the object of which said Will was among other things to relieve the said Frances as devisee of the said John B. Young from the burthen of paying certain debts enumerated in the Will due by the said John B. Young and yet unpaid, and by conveying the said Youngs credits and all other persons interested before this Court to compel a payment of the said debts out of the Estate specifically charged by the Will of the said Testator with the of the man relating, and facing of the complainant to it, rather than the dish of the Court as such as of the Court in which the said account is recorded. Your respondent states moreover that the account referred to in the bill as returned by Mr. Biggood some time before the Court long ago, and if it were true that the said: had not given the credit to which his testator entitled was, that is, it is strange that no whisper was ever heard of it until about the time of the institution of the complainant's suit, & she states she found that she had been denied for the debt of her husband, John B.

Young - the executor ~~being~~ the brother of the complainant, and when he was able to make good any deficiency giving out of mal-administration
- tion, nothing was heard of complaint, but since he has become insolvent, an attempt was made on the part of the complainant to make your respondent unjustly pay or security for her brother, what they say is manifestly unjust and improper - for they deny that any property ever came to the hands of Biggood as executor, not accountable for by him. It is true that on the last audit, it appears the sum of $150.50 of principal and $106.61 of interest was due by Mr. W. Biggood to the estate, but at the same settlement he paid over the balance due to the estate to Mrs. Sally Cobb in her own right & in payment of her children's debts James, Elizabeth and Georgiana Cobb; the complainant (no doubt) was apprised of this payment, yet no objection was raised by her to it.

Your respondent chaps that as appears by the return of the complainant in her bill, she has received several valua- ble claims and other estate which ought to be applied to the payment of the debt of John B. Young; at any rate the complainant is bound to assume her own proportion to pay debt from her testator, and the sum-
- his should not be held bound or liable for any one of the legacies for any personal funds recd. from the executor - the defendant do not acknowledge the respon- sibility attempted to be charged upon them, and call for strict proof of the allegations in the complainant's bill, and having answered, they pray him to be dismissed with their costs in this behalf sustained

That the said land was a debt security as required by the decree; he understands that a report was The answer of Richard H. Ridgwood ^{individually &} by of John B. Young died to a bill exhibited against him and others in said court by Francis H. Young

This respondent saving and reserving to himself all advantage of exceptions to the many errors and insufficiencies of the said ^{bill and the} matter therein stated and contained in manner and form as therein set forth for answer thereto or for so much thereof as he is advised it is material for him to answer answers and says, that it is true he is the executor of John B. Young decd, that after his testator's death he proceeded to collect the assets and settle the estate as speedily as the situation of the debts & credits would permit, that the testator was much indebted to various persons, and the chattel estate proper proved insufficient to pay all the debts and he was compelled to sell two or three of the slaves for that purpose as will be seen by reference to his account current in which the monies received for said ~~the~~ slaves are duly accounted for and paid away in discharge of the testator's debts; the balance found due to the estate after he had paid and satisfied all the debts which were demanded of him ~~of~~ due from his testator ~~to~~ your respondent paid over to Tally & Cobb in her own right and as guardian for her child due to ^{widow} ~~some~~ ^{legatee} of his testator her receipt for the sum of $257.11 is herewith filed marked R and is prayed to be taken as part of this answer; your respondent did not it is true take a refunding bond because the said Tally & Cobb was a poor widow the sister of the testator and as your orator believed at the time unable to give security for the sum received.

In reference to the charges and specifications in the said bill intended to mischarge and falsify his debt current and to make him and his executor liable your respondent answers and says that it is not true, but totally false that he charged the estate with the sum of $204.87 ~~for~~ or for any other sum due him which had been paid by the testator before his death, but that the said sum of $204.87 was due and unpaid at the testator's death. It is not true that he failed to credit the estate with the hire of slaves belonging to the testator except that he did not credit the hire of those slaves which he was compelled to sell after they were in fact sold. It is not true that he unnecessarily delayed the payment of debts against the estate for he was pressed for payment as fast as he could collect the arrests. It is not true that he omitted to credit the estate with bonds and debts which were volunt, but he admits it to be true that he did not charge himself with sundry claims of persons who were dead and insolvent. Your respondent in relation to the bonds and debts charged to have ^{been} placed with his testator as collateral security, denies that any bonds were ever assigned to or deposited with his testator for any such purpose, and he equally denies that ~~any~~ accounts were as such a deposit would have done no good is placed or deposited, your respondent has been informed that the plaintiff ~~charges~~ supposes are as to Tally & Cobb to have been so deposited; this ~~cannot be true~~ ^{cannot be true}, because about that time ~~at~~ he was indebted to her and would not have given up her debt due to him and there have paid her in cash, where it was so easy a matter to settle by offsetting the one claim against the other.

your respondent services are fraud and intentional mismanagement of his testator's estate and no one regrets more than himself that any difficulties or losses should accrue to himself or others Having thus answered he prays leave to be dismissed with his costs &c in this behalf expended

Deposition

the Bonds executed by Wamble, the purchaser of the Fearnsville Tract of land belonging to your brother. Answer I was the Guardian of my children, ~~I~~, Elizabeth and Georgianna Cobb, and also Guardian to Louisa and James Cobb, and did receive the bonds executed by Wamble, to each of them, who were entitled equally with myself to the proceeds of the sale of the Fearnsville tract of land. — Question by Pliffs counsel, did you pay off any claim which Wamble had or you individually, with any of the Bonds, belonging to your wards. — Ans.: I had an account at Wamble's, and I paid towards ~~the~~ the settlement of that account, at least one of the Bonds, if no more. — I cannot now say whether Mr. Wamble's store acct. amounted to as much as one of the bonds, as he took in some claims for me, which I owed to other persons. — I also owed an account to Todd & White, and have sent to Sampson White, — and gave an order on Mr. Wamble for Georgianna's bond when due, — which order was presented to me afterwards, and I gave up the bond to Wamble in liquidation of the claims due to Todd & White and Sampson White. — Question by Pliffs counsel. — Did you, or did you not, ever receive any money for any of the bonds. — Ans.: I never rec^d. any money for any of the bonds, except about $200, from Mr. A. Atkinson, a bond due on one of the bonds, as well as I now recollect. — affidavit

The affidavit of John R. Todd of lawful age, taken before me Bartholomew Lightfoot, Commissioner of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for the County of Smith the 2^d day of August 1842 at Edwin Morrisons Tavern in the Town of Smithfield to be read as evidence in the suit Youngs Exor. & others against Youngs Admor. & others in a matter of account referred to me: - The affiant being duly sworn said that he is well acquainted with the slaves bequeathed by John B. Young to his wife Francis K. Young - that negro man Ned is worth $200 - that negro woman Silvia is worth $300 - that negro man Peter is worth $250 - & that boy John is worth $200 - Negro man Willis died some short time after the death of John B. Young - that the negroes Ned, Silvia, Peter & John are at present held by M. P. Young exor. of said J. B. Young - he further said that he is well acquainted with the plantation called Oyster shell neck, given by John B. Young to his wife F. K. Young & that the said Land is worth in fee simple $3000 - and that the annual value thereof is $100 - that the said Land is in the possession of Hannah & Elizabeth Bidgood to whom the same was bequeathed by the said F. K. Young -

I must be plain: - Do you know any thing of pork being delivered by Mr. F. K. Young Widow of John B. Young to Mr. Margaret K. Atkinson shortly after the death of John B. Young, in the month of December 1834. here state all you know and on what account it was delivered? -

Answer - Mr. Young was my nearest neighbour & shortly after J. B.
Youngs death, she informed me that her late husband had agreed to furnish Mr. Atkinson with about 1000^{lbs} of pork, in part payment of a bond held by her, due by the said John B. Young, and that she wished to fulfill her husbands engagements - I observed to her, as every thing on the Oyster shell neck plantation was given to her by her husband, she was not bound to furnish the pork towards the payment of the said bond - that he is satisfied the said F. K. Young did deliver the above mentioned quantity of pork to Mr. Atkinson at the time above stated - that he believes the credit given by Mr. Atkinson on the 25th day of The Item in said Acct. N^o 1. of $27.70 retained by the executor April 5. 1838 for clothing Negroes objected to on the ground that the Executor had no right to charge that amount to the estate when the estate of said Young was largely responsible for the Executor.

The Account N^o 2. marked C. contains Items for the year 1835 for payments made by the Exor on open accounts amounting to $518.80 paid within nine months from the time of his qualification on the estate of Young. objected to on the ground that the executor had knowledge & notice of debts of Superior dignity to wit. the bonds above alluded to in said Account N^o 2. the Item of $7. prout of $9 paid A. Sally A. W. Bidgood Exor of John B. Young on the settlement of Bidgood's transactions on Young's estate. The receipt is herewith filed. It appeared to your Commissioner from the statement of Mrs. Cobb that she never had a formal settlement with her children; that all lived together, & the funds received by her were applied in common for the support of all - she kept accounts against her children; & as they came of age, ^{they} gave her a release. It also appears that Charles Murphy one of the securities on the Gen. bond, & on the bond executed by Mrs. Cobb when the Hearnsville Land was sold procured the signatures of E. Cobb, James J. Cobb & Georgianna Cobb to receipts for $350 with Interest from the 31st of October 1835 which was intended to cover the sum paid by Brombe, that these receipts were signed at the instance of Murphy. Your Comm^r is informed, these receipts are filed in the cause.

Your Commissioner is advised that no estate of Mary L. Cobb did have come to the hands of Gray Carroll Sheriff & Adm^r of said Cobb.

Your Comm^r has ascertained the Hearnsville Land to be worth $2000. That the absolute value of the Oystershell neck Land is $3000. That the annual value thereof is $100. The bond & receipt with the affidavit of John R. Todd are herewith filed marked W.

The item of $135.50 part of the item of $204.87 (in said acct. marked B) returned by the executor the 6th of December 1835 - The said $135.50 being for bond & acct. due from the Testator to the Executor, objected to on the ground that the estate of Young is responsible for the executor for a much larger amount - see the affidavits of Watson J. The Land called Oystershell neck, bequeathed by John B. Young to his wife Frances K. Young, has since the death of the said Frances K. Young been sold at public auction by virtue of two deeds of trust - previously the said F. K. Young in her lifetime & since the death of her late husband John B. Young - one deed in favour of Samuel Whitfield - & the other in favour of John G. Mason. The Land did not sell for quite the amount of the two debts - it sold for $1000.

Commissioners Office Aug. 8th 1843

Nathl. P. Young exor. of Frances K. Young died. Vs. Others etc against Richard W. Bidgood exor. of John B. Young died. Vs. Others Defts

Pursuant to an order of the Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery for the County of Isle of Wight pronounced in this suit the 5th day of May 1843 -

Your Commissioner on the 3^d of June 1843 issued his notice to the parties appointing Wednesday the 19th of July 1843 at the Courthouse of Isle of Wight County for taking the accounts directed by said order -

The service of the notice was acknowledged, signed by Joel Cook, Gray Canoll, Rich^d W. Bidgood, Sally A. Cobb, Elizabeth A. Cobb, Georgianna Cobb, Wm. Hornblow, S. White A. P. Young & W. J. Jordan, - James I. Cobb, having died, before the notice was served on him.

At the time & place appointed, the Plaintiff A. P. Young attended before your Commissioner, & said he was not ready for the settlement of his transactions on the estate of Frances K. Young died. & ask'd for further time - The settlement of the account was therefore continued from time to time till this 8th day of August 1843 when the accounts were closed -

The Account of Nathl. P. Youngs transactions on Frances K. Youngs estate, hereto annexed marked B. Shows that on this 8th of Aug. '43 the said Young has in his hands belonging to the estate of the said F. K. Young the sum of $500.39

The Account of the slaves bequeathed by John B. Young to his wife Frances K. Young, & which came to the hands of the said A. P. Young as exor. of said F. K. Young is hereto annexed marked C

The Land called Oystershell Neck, bequeathed by the said John B. Young to Frances K. Young, was conveyed by the said F. K. Young to secure a debt due to Saml. Whitfield - & secure another debt due to John G. Mason - The Land was sold under said deeds & sold at public auction for $1000, a little less than the amount of the said debts - Which is submitted to the Court.
