To the Hon. R. H. Battle, Judge of the Superior Court of Isle of Wight County:

Pursuant to a decree of said Court entered at the May Term last in the suit of Emma A. Edwards & wife & others petitioners, against Samuel Bell & wife and others defendants, a copy of which is hereto annexed, We the undersigned commissioners therein appointed for the purpose, have proceeded to view the land in said decree mentioned whereof Albert B. Moody died seized in the County of Isle of Wight, supposed to contain 34 1/2 acres more or less bounded by the lands of Algernon S. Carroll, Willis Smalling dec'd and others, for the purpose of making partition thereof among all the heirs at law of the said Albert B. Moody dec'd as directed by said decree. But we the said commissioners found it very inconvenient to make said partition as aforesaid, and are of opinion that the interest of all the said parties entitled thereto would be promoted by a sale of the entire subject and distribution of the proceeds; and our opinion is based upon the following facts to wit: First. The buildings on said land are worth more than one fifth part of the whole land so that whatever party should get the buildings would have more than one third or one fifth part though that party might not get any land at all. Secondly the land does not lie in such a manner as to enable it to be divided into five parts to advantage but if such division could be made it would be injurious to all parties. In our opinion the fee simple value of said land is about $2000- and its annual value as evidenced by the rent to

Opinion is based, together with the fee Simple and annual Value of said land and whether any of the parties entitled thereto, will receive the same & pay therefor to the other parties such Sums as their interest therein entitled to, and in any Case the said Commissioner are required to report to the Court, their proceedings under this decree;

Gray, Joseph A Stallings Algernon F Carroll Dawsey Deans & F. A. Atkinson who are hereby appointed Social Commissioners for the purpose, any three or more of whom may act do proceed to make partition of the tract of land in the Plaintiffs Bill mentioned, where of Albert G Moody died seized & possessed in the County of Isle of Wight, Containing 347 Acres more or less, and bounded by the lands of Algernon F. Carroll, Willis Gwaltney dec'd & Others, Among all the said heirs at law of the said Albert G Moody dec'd as follows to wit to Samuel Bells and Sabelia his wife 1/5 part to James L Edwards & Augusta B his wife 1/5 part to John F Ramsey & Eugenia his wife 1/5 part to Albert G Moody 1/5 part, and to Walter A Gwaltney & his wife Anna R 1/5 part, But if said Commissioners should find it inconvenient to make said partition as aforesaid and should be of Opinion that the interest of all the parties intitled to said land would be promoted by the Sale of the entire subject & distribution of the proceeds or allotment of part and Sale of the residue, then they are required to report to the Court the facts upon which their

To The Hon. Geo. Blow, Judge of the Circuit Court of Isle of Wight County:

The municipal special commissioner under a decree of said Court rendered at the May Term 1869 in the suit-Chancery pending under the style of Edwards & wife & Jones &c. vs. Bates & wife &c., very respectfully reports to the Court that in obedience to said decree, he withdrew from the Clerk's office of said Court the two bonds of Henry Jones & John L. Adams, his security, mentioned ~~as aforesaid~~ in said decree, for $1444.98 each, bearing date on 7th December 1868 and payable respectively in one and two years, with interest from date, and that he collected the bond first due, on 15th December 1869 and the other on 15th Oct. 1870, both of which the said Henry Jones has paid in full and he is entitled to a credit for the said Court of same, but he desires to have said same settled on Alice A. R. Jones his wife by deed directly from your commissioner, and has requested your commissioner not to convey said ~~bond~~ until he, said Jones, could petition the Court to authorize and empower said commissioner to convey the same as aforesaid, which he could not do under the decree above referred to.

Your commissioner out of the amount collected on the first of said bonds, paid out all the debts directed by said decree to be paid, together with some additional Clerk's and Commissioners fees, and also a couple of bills for advertising and printing which were omitted in the report of sale. The balance he paid out equally to the said heirs at law ($198.14 to each) excepting the portion directed to be paid to Anna R. Hundley's trustee, which your commissioner retained in his hands because no trustee had been appointed to receive it. (See foregoing statement)

Out of the amount collected on the second bond your commissioner paid a small additional Clerk's account, and all the debts directed to be paid by decree herein of May Term 1870, and Oct. Term 1870 and the remainder equally to the said heirs at law ($280.04 to each) excepting the portion due to said Anna R. Hundleys trustee, which was retained for the reasons aforesaid. The said James L. Edwards died before this last distribution was made, and there was some doubt as to whether his administrator or Augusta B. Edwards, his widow (in whose right he was to receive said share) was entitled to it. But said Admr. and said widow made some arrangement about it, between themselves, and said widow gave said Admr. an order on your commissioner for the money and he paid it on said order and also took a receipt from said Administrator, for the amount. The vouchers for said payments are filed herewith. (See foregoing statement &c.)

There are now in the hands of your commissioner as above stated, the sum of $198.14 being one fifth of the balance on the first bond, and the sum of $280.04 being one fifth of the balance on the last bond, making in all the sum of $478.18, which is due to said Anna R. Hundley, who is now of age and has consented in the usual manner, since becoming of age, for said amount to be paid to W. H. Hundley, her husband. This fund being held by your commissioner pendente lite, he supposes that it is not subject to any interest

All of which is very respectfully submitted &c.
