of equity, where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable, they pray that the said Oliver F. Gilliam be made party defendant to this bill, and required to answer the same, though not under oath, answer under oath being hereby waived; that proper process issue; that the said real estate be divided between the parties entitled thereto, or if it cannot be divided, that it be sold and the proceeds of such sale be so divided; that all proper orders and decrees may be made, inquiries directed and accounts taken; and that your complainants may have all such further, other and general relief in the premises as the nature of their case may require, or to equity shall seem meet.

Notice is hereby given that the court will be asked to allow reasonable attorney's fee to A. S. Johnson, counsel for the complainants, for services rendered and to be rendered in the conduct of this suit, out of any fund that may come under the direction of the court.

v) Chancery. No._____.

Oliver F. Gilliam,.....Defendants

TO HONORABLE B. D. WHITE,

JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF ISLE OF WIGHT.

Your complainants, A. S. Fulgham and Sallie E. Bloxom, respectfully represent to the court, that they are, together with the defendant, Oliver F. Gilliam, owners of a certain tract of land, in Isle of Wight County, State of Virginia, and which lies on Jones Creek, of some eighty five acres, more or less. That it is the same land of which Malinda Fulgham, mother of said A. S. Fulgham and Sallie E. Bloxom, and grand-mother of said Oliver F. Gilliam, died siezed and possessed. That the interest of said Oliver F. Gilliam, in said land, is subject to the courtesy right of W. E. Fulgham, husband of said Malinda Fulgham, therein.

That the said real estate is, as your complainant believes, susceptible of partition among the parties entitled to share therein; but should it not be divisible in kind, then your complainants believe, and here state, that the interest of those entitled thereto, or the proceeds thereof, will be promoted by a sale of the whole, or of such distinct and independent portion as cannot be so partitioned, and that the proceeds of such sale be distributed among the parties entitled thereto, according to their respective rights.

In tender consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your complainant is without remedy in the premises, save in a court

v) Chancery. No. 410.

Oliver F. Gilliam.

This cause, which has duly matured at rules, and in which A. S. Fulgham and Sallie E. Bloxom are the complainants, and Oliver F. Gilliam is the defendant, came on this day to be heard upon the bill of complaint, the defendant, upon whom process has been duly served not having appeared to plead, demur or answer; and the complainants, by the attorney, having stated at the bar of this court that the matters in controversy in the bill mentioned have been settled by the conveyance by the defendant to the complainants of his interest in the tract of land in the bill mentioned, and that there is nothing further to be done in this cause, it is adjudged, ordered and decreed that the same be dismissed and stricken from the docket.
