Isle of Wight,
Virginia.

Dear Gus:

Herewith is memorandum for suit of Joyner's administrator against Goodrich. Issue process, at once, please and let us have it. I have not sent you deposit. It may be that issue of summons will bring satisfaction. If so I would like to get rid of the suit without any record, paying you and the Sheriff, of course, for your work. If, however, satisfaction does not come then it will have to go to docket and I will send deposit. The trouble is that the deposit comes out of me until I get something from the other source,

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF ISLE OF WIGHT.

A. S. Johnson, surviving administrator of V. W. Joyner, deceased, and all other creditors of E. C. Goodrich, who may come in and contribute to the costs of this suit,

v) Chancery. _____

E. C. Goodrich.

TO HONORABLE BENJAMIN DEY WHITE, JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF ISLE OF WIGHT.

Your complainant, A. S. Johnson, surviving administrator of the estate of V. W. Joyner, deceased, represents to the court the following case, and prays for such relief therein as is proper and equitable:

That on the _____ day of July, 1917 V. W. Joyner departed this life, intestate, a resident of the County of Isle of Wight, State of Virginia; and, that on the _____ day of _____, 1917, C. P. Jones and A. S. Johnson were duly appointed and qualified as administrators of the estate of the said V. W. Joyner.

That on the _____ day of November, 1924, the said C. P. Jones departed this life, leaving the said A. S. Johnson, your complainant, as the sole surviving administrator of the said V. W. Joyner, deceased.

That E. C. Goodrich being indebted to the estate of the said E. C. Joyner, evidenced by the bond of himself and his wife, Flossie Goodrich, the said A. S. Johnson, surviving administrator as aforesaid, on the 2nd. day of April, 1925, in the Circuit Court of the said County of Isle of Wight, obtained a judgment against the said E. C. Goodrich and Flossie Goodrich, for the principal sum of $1019.22, with interest thereof from January 1st. 1922 till paid, and $8.15 costs; that an execution was sued out of the clerk's office of said Court on the 29th. day of April, 1925, placed in the hands of the Sheriff of this County and returned nulla bona; that on the 28th. day of October, 1926, another execution was sued out of said Clerk's Office, and has been returned showing the same condition as shown by the first execution herein mentioned.

That the said E. C. Goodrich is the owner of a life estate in a certain tract of land, in the County of Isle of Wight, State of Virginia, adjoining the lands of Emily G. Guy and others, which was devised to him, for life, by his father, O. C. Goodrich, as appears by the last will and testament, duly proved and entered of record in the said Clerk's Office.

That your complainant brings this suit for the benefit of himself and the other creditors of the said E. C. Goodrich who may come in and contribute to the costs thereof.

Forasmuch as your complainant is without remedy in the premises, save in a court of equity where matters of this kind are alone and properly cognizable, he prays that the said E. C. Goodrich may be made a party defendant to this bill of complaint and required to answer the same, though not under oath; answer under oath being hereby waived; that the value of the real estate of the said E. C. Goodrich may be determined and whether or not it will rent for enough, in five years, to pay his debts which may be proved in this suit; if so that the said land may be rented for such purpose; and if it will not, within five years, so pay such debts, then that it may be sold and the proceeds of sale, after the payment of the costs of this suit, applied upon the payment of the debt herein mentioned, or such as may be proved in this suit, according to their priorities; that all necessary inquiries may be made, accounts taken and stated, all proper orders and decree may be entered, and that your complainant may be granted such other, further and general relief in the premises as the nature of his case may require, or to equity and good conscience may seem meet.

And your complainant will ever pray, etc.

the estate of V. W. Joyner, deceased.
