COMMONWEALTH

Plaintiff

vs.

Upon an Indictment for Larceny.
(Third offence)

Doc Bazemore

Defendant

Doc Bazemore, who stands indicted for larceny, was this day led to the bar in custody of the Sergeant of this City; Whereupon, upon a plea of guilty tendered in person by the accused, and with the consent of the Attorney for the Commonwealth (here entered of record), the Court heard and determined the case, without the intervention of a jury; Whereupon the Court fixed the punishment of the said Doc Bazemore at one year's confinement in the Penitentiary; And thereupon, it being demanded of the said Doc Bazemore, if any thing he had or knew to say, why the Court should not now to proceed to pronounce judgment against him according to law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay thereof; it is considered by the Court (in its discretion, instead of sentencing the said Doc Bazemore to confinement in the Penitentiary and in lieu thereof), that the said Doc Bazemore do, and he is, sentenced to hard labor on the public road for the period of One year, being a period of time equal to the term of Confinement in the Penitentiary by the Court so fixed; And it is ordered that he be delivered in to the Custody of the Superintendent of the Penitentiary, to be kept by him as a member of the State Convict Road force in accordance with law. And the said Doc Bazemore is remanded to jail.

" Exhibit A "

In the Circuit Court of Hansemond County, Virginia.

Pinkey Bazemore-----Complainant.

Vs In Chancery

Doc Bazemore-----Defendant.

Bill

To the Honorable James L. McLomoro, Judge.

Your complainant, Pinkey Bazemore, respectfully represents:

1. That on the 25th day of November, 1907, your complainant, whose maiden name was Pinkey Jones, was lawfully married at Suffolk, in the County of Hansemond, Virginia, to Doc Bazemore, and, as will appear by marriage certificate herewith, marked Exhibit B, and made a part of this bill.
2. That both your complainant and the said Doc Bazemore have resided and have been domiciled in this State ever since the aforesaid marriage, and for more than two years next preceding the commencement of this suit and are now domiciled and now reside in this State, and,
3. That on the 27th day February, 1912, in the Circuit Court of the City of Suffolk, the said Doc Bazemore was sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary, as will appear from the order book of said court, a certified copy of same being herewith filed, marked "Exhibit A", and made a part of this bill, and,
4. Your complainant and the defendant, as the results of said marriage, had born unto them two children, to-wit; a girl, Perlle Bazemore, now age three years, and Hattie Bazemore, a girl, now age four months old, who was born after the confinement in the penitentiary of her father.

Both of said children are now living their <sup>with</sup> mother, the complainant, and are within the jurisdiction of this court, And the said children are wholly supported by your complainant.

In consideration whereof, and for as much as your oratrix is remediless in the premises save alone by a court of equity, she prays that Doc Bazemore may be made a party defendant to this bill and required to answer the same, though not under oath, that being waived; and that the proper process may issue; that a divorce from the bonds of matrimony which was created by the aforesaid marriage, be decreed her, that she be allowed to keep and support her two children and that your complainant may have all such further, and other and general releif in the premises as the nature of her case may require or to equity shall seem meet.

And she will ever pray, etc.

Pinkey Bazemore
