A. It is.

(Certificate of Marriage filed and marked

Q. State the circumstances of the desertion.

A. After going home from here immediately after New Years, we went back to our residence where we boarded, No. 720 13th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., and on the evening of January 3, 1912, early, I had an appointment to meet my husband at his office. He was detained there until 8:30 or 9:00 o'clock, and when I went to the office to meet him to go out for the evening, he had left a message by another employee in the office, which was the Washington Herald, that he would be detained longer than he had expected in the printing room, on the upper floor; so it was my intention then, when I found that he would be detained, to leave a note saying where he could call for me, at the home of a girl friend, later in the evening. In looking for a pencil to write the note I opened his desk drawer where I found several letters addressed in a handwriting that I did not know, and which were all alike, and my curiosity lead me to look at them. I found that the letters were all from the same source, written in very endearing terms and as a rule signed - "Yours affectionately, or, "Your affectionate wife, Elizabeth" I left no note, but after saying goodnight to the different employees in the office of my husband, I took the letters with me and went home, and delivered a verbal message that he would find me at home. He came home about 11:00 or 11:30 O'clock and I showed him the letters and asked who they were from, and he became angry and we had our first quarrel. I asked him to explain the letters, and his explanation was that the letters signed "Elizabeth" were from a Mrs. Thompson, who was formerly his wife, but who had divorced him several years before he married me. I had never heard of this former wife prior to my finding the letters, and asked him why after these years of separation he had begun corresponding with Mrs. Thompson a second time, and he told he had a child by the first Mrs. Thompson, which he referred to as "Little Alma", and he admitted at the time that he cared nothing for this other woman, and also stated that he did not care for me, that he had tried in several ways to get Alma and had tried when she divorced him some years before that, and the court did not see fit to give him the child, and had tried in every way since he was divorced to get the child, and finally found that the only way to do it was to go back to his wife, so he decided, when we had our first quarrel, January 3rd, that it had been his intention for some weeks since corresponding with Mrs. Thompson to leave me and go to Mrs. Thompson, and he did tell me at the same time that he had no intention of living with Mrs. Thompson any longer than it took him to get the child and take it away

#7.

Q. from her. I do not know whether his intention was to bring the child to Washington or to put it in a school. He also said at this time that he had not meant to desert me at that time, that he was going to wait first, and see if it was not possible to get control of the child, but since that I had found the letters and learned a part of his scheme, that he might as well "fess up" as he expressed it, One word lead to another, and we had a tustle over the letters, he insisted upon keeping them, and he tried to get them, and did get some and thought that he had them all. I had hidden them in my shirtwaist, I had no choice of which I would keep but managed to hide one which he did not find. One of the letters referred to me as "Mrs. Thompson No. 2" One in particular (I had plenty of time to read them all before his return) stated - "When do you think you will be able to divorce Mrs. Thompson No.2 and marry me again" That was one of the remarks that lead me to believe that a former Mrs. Thompson really existed. He left the house very angry, after he thought he had gotten all of the letters, and I understand^{ed} went to some hotel in Washington and spent the night. The next morning he sent a messenger, a telgraph boy, to my home, or where I had been boarding, and asked that I send him all of his clothes and everything that belonged to him, which I did, and I understand that he went out of town immediately after that for a few days for the firm, and then came back into town again, and made several trips back and forth for a matter of several weeks, but I did not see him. He knew that I had not left the house, and I did stay there for a month after he left and he made no effort to see me, and I made none to see him, and as I have said before, I have not seen him since.

#8.

Q. I have here a letter addressed to Donald C. Thompson, Washington, D. C., in care of the Washington Times, postmarked Topeka, Kansas, Dec. 13, 1911, signed "Elizabeth Thompson" Is this one of the letters that you took from the desk drawer of your husband, and the one that you succeeded in keeping from him.

A. It is.

(This Letter is marked "EXHIBIT-B" and made a part of the evidence.

Q. Did your lives together in Washington run very smoothly until this quarrel.

A. We had no quarrel until this occasion, except that I could not always get what money I really needed for actual support, but it happened that I had a little money of my own that I had saved from working, and my father had given me some, so we had no real argument over this and I took for granted that better times were coming, and I really suffered for nothing but I might have, had I not had a little money of my own.

Q. When did you return to your father's home in this county.

A. I cannot state the date but it was the first week in February, 1912.

Q. Have you resided there continually.

A. I have

Q. Have you seen your husband since the 3rd of January, 1912.

A. I have not.

Q. As far as you know, has Donald Carl Thompson ever resided in Virginia.

A. No, he has not.

And further this deponent saith not.

Florida Jones Thompson

Florida Jones Thompson being recalled deposeeth as follows:

Q. I am handing you a copy of the Chicago Daily Tribune, dated Thursday, February 11th, 1915, On page 5, in the upper right hand corner, there appears the picture of a man with a photographer's outfit in his hands with the name Donald Thompson-Tribune War Photographer marked under the said picture. Please state whether or not you recognize this picture; and if so, whose likeness it is.

A. Yes, I recognize it. It is a picture of my husband, the defendant in this suit.

Q. Is your husband a newspaper man?

A. Yes, he is a newspaper man. At the time, we married, he was in the advertising department of the Washington Herald, but prior to this he traveled in England for the Associated Press.

Q. When did you learn that your husband had gone to Europe?

A. On Saturday, the 20th, a friend of mine sent me this copy of the Tribune which you have just handed me.

Paper marked "Exhibit C" is filed herewith and asked to be read as a part of this evidence.

And further this deponent says not.

"The Tribune" Sends More Men to the Battle Fronts in Europe.

EDWIN F. WEIGLE—
Tribune staff photographer at the front in Belgium.

BELGIUM SIGNAL CORPS IN TOWER OF ANTWERP'S CATHEDRAL—Mr. Weigle, The Tribune's staff photographer, secured this picture before the siege of the Belgian metropolis. It furnishes incontrovertible proof of the German claim that the spires of the Belgian churches were used for military purposes.

In the case of Antwerp, however, the cathedral escaped unscathed, though it offered a magnificent target during the bombardment, towering above the city and being visible at a great distance owing to the flatness of the country.

The signal station in the tower was connected by telephone with all the forts around Antwerp. The observers in the tower were able to get a general view of the operations of Germans around the city and this information was promptly transmitted to the commanders in the forts and trenches.

DONALD THOMPSON—Tribune war photographer.

U. S. MARINES FIGHTING IN THE STREETS OF VERA CRUZ—It was here that Mr. Weigle got his baptism of fire and became famous as a war photographer, his moving pictures of the battle in the streets of Vera Cruz being shown all over the country.

ROBERT R. MCCORMICK of The Tribune, who is on his way to the battle front in the Eastern war zone.

"Tribune" Staff Men Off to War Zones.

ROBERT R. MCCORMICK of THE TRIBUNE sailed yesterday from New York en route to the European war zone. He was accompanied by Donald C. Thompson and Edwin F. Weigle, THE TRIBUNE's two world famous war photographers.

Mr. McCormick's ultimate destination is the headquarters of the commander in chief of the Russian armies. He expects to penetrate to the battle front in the eastern war arena. He sailed on the Adriatic for Liverpool and will stop at London, and then proceed to Petrograd through Norway and Sweden.

Mr. Weigle, whose pictures of the fighting in Belgium gave him a world wide reputation as an intrepid war photographer and as a preserver of accurate history, goes direct to Germany to join James O'Donnell Bennett, THE TRIBUNE's war correspondent now with the German forces. Arrangements similar to those made last fall with the Belgian Red Cross are pending with the German authorities. It is planned to send Weigle to the firing line with the German forces and picture the hostilities on the battle front.

Mr. Thompson will go to the front in France and Belgium and after covering this war zone will hope to reach the eastern battle lines.

Thompson and Weigle are today perhaps the two most famous war photographers in the world. Weigle first won his spurs in Mexico. He was at Vera Cruz when the American soldiers landed. The snipers began firing from the windows and house-tops on the United States troops. Weigle's companion shouted to him to "duck" and started to run. Weigle went in the other direction—toward the place where the firing came from. He got the actual pictures of that clash.

When the European eruption broke forth Weigle packed his kit and said he was ready. He accompanied Joseph Medill Patterson to Europe and under the agreement with the Belgian Red Cross he was the first photographer actually to picture the bloody battles and the burning of the cities throughout a greater part of the war zone, being attached to the Belgian army.

Thompson—"Shrimp" Thompson, as he was known in the German trenches—is the young Topeka corn fed product who has written K-A-N-S-A-S across the war map of Europe. He was in thirty-two battles in Belgium, large and small, but taking only the still pictures the first few weeks of the conflict. He fell in with Weigle at the bombardment and burning of Antwerp, and the two were together considerably after that.

On the night of the bombardment of Antwerp Thompson and Weigle were in a coal bin in the basement of a house at 74 Rue de Paris. Their house was hit with a big shell and they clambered upstairs and put out the fire, then went back to their coal bin. They were in the coal bin about twenty hours. Then they went out and photographed the city burning, the dead in the streets, and the flight of the refugees across the pontoon bridge. Thompson had a part of his nose shot away at Dixmude.

Both boys came back home for a rest. They are now on the ocean on their way back. Both allowed before departing from Chicago last week that if the charmed life sticks with them this trip they will photograph this war up and down, sideways and backwards, and will come back with the greatest collection of war films the world perhaps ever will know.

PONTOON BRIDGE ACROSS THE SCHELDT AT ANTWERP—Picture taken by Mr. Weigle, Tribune staff photographer, before the siege. Over this narrow bridge half of Antwerp's population fled during the bombardment. The Belgian and British forces also retreated over the bridge and it was blown up by the rear guard.

NATIONAL LEAGUE MOGULS ADOPT NEW WATER RULE

THOMAS' PLEA
FOR REVISION
GAINS VOTES

Hereafter Club Cannot Withdraw Claim on Any Player.

1915 DATES ADOPTED.

New York, Feb. 10.—Revision of the waiver rule and much discussion on the advisability of allowing the International league to put a club in the Bronx took place at the time of the National league meeting today. They would up their meeting late in the afternoon. The schedule was adopted in a brief session in the morning.

The change in the waiver rule was brought up and advocated by President Thomas of the Chicago club. In future when a club asks for a waiver on a player there cannot be a withdrawal, nor can a club withdraw a claim for a player under a waiver. This was made a hard and fast rule today by a 6 to 5 vote. New York and Pittsburgh being the dissenting clubs. It also was decided that no member can ask for a waiver or claim a player. Such action in future must be taken personally by a club president.

Mrs. Britton Enters Debate.
During the discussion on this point Mrs. Britton, of the St. Louis club, addressed the delegates. This was the first time that a woman has taken part in the debates of the baseball magnates. Mrs. Britton was warmly congratulated upon her familiarity with the waiver and draft clauses. The league did not announce what action it was taking in regard to the request of the International league to place a club in the Bronx borough of this city, but President Tener said that a written reply would be mailed to President Barrow of the minor organization tomorrow.

President Tener said no action was taken at the present time for "obvious reasons." The "obvious reasons" mentioned were not known until Barney Dreyfus of the Pittsburgh club said: "We do not want to take any action on anything until Judge Landis makes his decision."

Bronx Fans Make Demand.
Billy Gibson, representing a large number of Bronx business men, served notice on the National league moguls that if they didn't consent to the entrance of an International league team in that borough the fans would be asked to place a team there. The National league club owners would make no statement regarding the demand.

President Barrow of the International league said he had not given up hope of putting a team in the Bronx. He said that President Hemstead of the Giants was the only one opposed to the plan and believed he would finally agree to it rather than see the fans invade that territory.

Big Trade Not Completed.
Managers Herzog and Moran of Philadelphia have not yet completed the deal for catcher Doolin, who has been signed by Cincinnati. The Philadelphia club was to receive a player in addition to a substantial cash consideration for the catcher, and it is understood that the player was to be a catcher named Nelson. Manager Brannen of the Chicago club, who is said to be anxious to secure the services of Nelson, has refused to give up the other two managers, but no definite agreement was reached.

LARRY CHENEY MAY JUMP TO NEW FEDERAL OWNER.
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Larry Cheney, star of the Cubs pitching staff, will take the burden to the Federal league if Harry J. Sinclair, who owned clubs on which Cheney played in Oklahoma and Kentucky, has the story that was sent here tonight from Tulsa, Okla., that he has decided to sell the Kansas City franchise by Sinclair and Powers will mean the passing of George Stovall if the new owner can get the franchise. Cheney is a Federal pitcher here, and the placing of "Tiny" Stovall, the former Grand third baseman in charge of the team. Stovall met Cheney in Chicago last week and accompanied him to New York.

WANTS FEDS IN FRATERNITY.
New York, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—It is reported that Edward Reulbach, secretary of the fraternity, who has just signed a Federal league contract, will organize the players in the Chicago circuit, so that they will enjoy the privilege of fraternity membership. If Reulbach is successful, the fraternity's constitution and by-laws will have to be amended so that membership will include non-employed both by organized baseball and independent leagues. In view of the Federal league's claim, it is believed that they will improve the lot of the players. Reulbach's plan is somewhat of a puzzle.

FAILS TO SIGN NEW YANKS.
Detroit, Mich., Feb. 10.—Manager "Bill" Donovan of the Detroit club, who has been in the city for several days, has failed in his attempt to sign Hugh High and Walter Rupp, members of the Detroit club, who have been asked to join a higher salary than he was willing to offer. High is an outfielder and Rupp a first baseman.

DUGUEY RELEASED TO PHILS.
Boston, Mass., Feb. 10.—The release of Oscar Duguey, utility infielder of the Boston National, to the Philadelphia Nationals was announced by President Gaffney over the telephone from New York today. It was reported that Duguey's transfer was part of the deal which included the release of Sherwood Magee to Philadelphia.

TWO FOR ST. PATRICK'S NINE.
St. Patrick's won two games in the Knights of Columbus indoor baseball league last night, defeating the Philadelphia Nationals was announced by President Gaffney over the telephone from New York today. It was reported that Duguey's transfer was part of the deal which included the release of Sherwood Magee to Philadelphia.

ERNIE JOHNSON
STICKS TO FEDSIsbell Gets Ex-Sox to Talk to Ban, but All Refuse to Make Comment.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Before he left for the Pacific coast last night, President Johnson of the American league had a conference with Ernie Johnson, one of the recent jumpers from organized baseball to the Federal league. They conversed not longer than ten minutes and neither had anything to say about the conference, but indications were that Ernie will stick to the Reds.

The meeting of the player and the American league magnate was engineered yesterday by Frank Isbell, old time first baseman for the White Sox and present owner of the Des Moines club. He is here attending a meeting of Western league magnates. Isbell and Ernie Johnson are great friends and the latter went to the Great Northern to make a call. From there Isbell secured the boy to the Fisher building and had him sitting on a chair by the side of President Johnson almost before he knew it.

Bait and Baseball.
"You know I feel a bit guilty because that boy jumped from organized ball," said Isbell. "I was out in southern California only a few weeks ago rescuing about forty men from the hands of the law. I was living. We were invited to visit them and went to Laguna Beach, where they were. We stayed three days and had great success in catching fish because of some extraordinary bait that I had brought from Long Beach and which could not be obtained where Ernie lived. The day before I reached there Ernie had signed a Federal league contract with George Stovall. He told me about it and I tried to talk him out of jumping all the while I was there. Finally when I left I promised to send him some of that fish bait. The last thing he said to me was: 'Don't forget to send him that fish bait he'd have stayed out there.'"

Commy and Johnson Leave.
Owner Commy of the White Sox left for the Brooklyn Nationals here today and the two will visit Seattle and Portland, then get down to the coast. Commy before the White Sox signed a new manager and all the players arrive the latter part of next week. Commy left without saying a word to the press.

BASEBALL BRIEVES.
New York, Feb. 10.—All players in the Eastern circuit are expected to be in the city today to report to Manager Robinson at the Boston club.

Baseball Briefs.
New York, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Duguey McGreevy of this city today received word of his appointment as new manager of the Philadelphia Nationals. He was formerly with the American and Pacific Coast leagues.

Baseball Briefs.
New York, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—John Laven, now a full fledged physician, and shortstop of the St. Louis club, will be in the city in a day or two where he will marry Miss Hazel Silbert, a co-ed at the U. of M. when Laven was a student there.

Baseball Briefs.
New York, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—The first of the baseball season was celebrated at the Colorado university team. William C. Tomlinson, first baseman, started practice by colliding head-on with a bat ball. He was carried off the field unconscious.

PERKINS HOLDS AMERICAN LAW STIFLES TRADE
Sees Need for Modern Attitude Giving Business an Opportunity.

New York, Feb. 10.—(Special.)—Declaring something must be done to give a country of the narrowness of America property should be a promotional issue, George W. Perkins tonight addressed the Economic club on the topic, "The Outlook for Prosperity."

"The Outlook for Prosperity."

"It is the conflict," he said, "between economic law and economic opportunity that has been plaguing this country for twenty years or more."

"The blame is placed on the fact that legislation has not kept pace with the progress of the age. The only law we have been making, he said, has been those to restrict man's energies and opportunities."

"The law is not made a trust," Mr. Perkins declared, "the tariff never made a trust and free trade never destroyed one."

Mr. Perkins took up President Wilson's recent assurance that the government has no quarrel with business and that "it is no crime," and added that "here we have the president's attorney general at almost the same moment appealing to the Supreme court to overturn the Circuit court and decide that it is a crime."

The speaker was referring to the recent Keystone Watch Case company dissolution suit which the government lost in Pennsylvania.

Business, Mr. Perkins declared, "has got to be done on facts on the ground, on theories and the personal opinions of individuals."

Germany, he said, with great foresight has realized that international trade must inevitably mean modern centralization, vast expansion in trading opportunities, vast responsibilities for the state, and additional powers for the men of large mental endowments and means."

Germany, he said, "has got to be done on facts on the ground, on theories and the personal opinions of individuals."
