Your Commissioner, S.E.Everett, appointed by Your Honor in the above entitled cause on the 7th day of September, 1920, to make sale of certain property mentioned in the bill and proceedings in said cause, respectfully submits the following report:

After executing the required bond, Your Commissioner advertised the said property for sale to be sold on the 9th day of October, 1920, at 12 o'clock M. in front of the National Bank of Suffolk, Suffolk, Virginia, proper notice of said sale having been given in accordance with said decree, and the said property was put up at Public Auction on said day and hour, and was struck off to Pearl King for the sum of Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars, the said Pearl King being the highest bidder at said sale.

The said purchaser desires to pay the whole of the purchase price in cash.

This property was valued at Seven Hundred ($700.00 Dollars)/by Commissioners, but Your Commissioner desires to say to Your Honor that the changes in market prices of farm products and other things, has had its effect on real estate, and that the heirs are fully satisfied at this sale, especially when their sister is the purchaser. Therefore Your Commissioner asks that the sale be confirmed.

The undersigned Commissioners appointed by the decree entered on the 10th day of August, 1920, in the above cause, on the 21st day of August, 1920, after being duly sworn, proceeded to execute the duties enjoined upon them by said decree, and make to Your Honor the following report:

First: All of your Commissioners are thoroughly familiar with the property; it being the lot of land fronting ninety (90) feet, more or less, on the west side of what is known as Holy Neck Road, in the village of Whaleyville, and running back between parallel lines one hundred (100) feet, with a small house on same.

Second: Partition cannot be conveniently made, and the interest of those who are entitled to the land, or its proceeds, will be promoted by a sale of the entire land, for the following reasons: No party interested will accept the property and pay therefor to the other parties such sums of money as their interest therein may entitle them to, and no parties interested therein will agree to have their shares laid off separately or together.

Therefore your commissioners recommend that it is impossible to have any allotment of said property. The fee simple value of said property is $700.00, and the annual value is $75.00

This day came Willie Pratt, Cora Dunstan, Pattie Butler, Jacob E.Pratt, Mollie Hughes, Anna Farmer and Pearl King, complainants, and by leave of Court filed their bill, and, on motion, John K.Hutton, a discreet and competent attorney at law, was assigned as guardian ad litem of the infant, Lillie May Jones, to defend her interests in this suit, and thereupon the said guardian ad litem filed the answer of the said infant defendant, and his answer to the said bill of complaint, to which several answers the complainants responded generally, and thereupon by consent of all parties by counsel, this case was docketed and set for hearing, and by like consent came om this day to be heard on the bill of complainants, and on the ~~general~~ answers of defendant by the said guardian ad litem, to the said bill as above set out, and general replication of the complainants to ~~several~~ said answers, and was argued by counsel.

On consideration whereof the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that T.O.Knight, E.A.Brothers, B.H.Doughtie, R.B.Hayes and Cecil W.Russell, who are hereby appointed Commissioners for the purpose, any three or more of whom may act, having been first duly sworn, do proceed to lay off and divide the real estate of which Malissa Patterson died seized and possessed in the bill mentioned, into eight equal parts, having regard to quality and quantity, and assign one of the said eight parts to each of the heirs of the said Malissa Patterson, deceased, namely, one eighth part to Willie Pratt; to Cora Dunstan, one-eighth part, to Pattie Butler, one-eighth part, to Jacob E.Pratt, one-eighth part; to Mollie Hughes, one-eighth part, to Anna Farmer, one-eighth part, to Pearl King, one-eighth part, and to Lillie May Jones, one-eighth part. But if the said Commissioners should find it impracticable to divide said land among the aforesaid parties, or should be of opinion that the interests of the said parties would be more promoted by a sale of the same, in which case they are required to report the facts upon which their opinion is based, to the Court, and also what, in their opinion, is the fee simple value of the whole real estate of which Malissa Patterson died seized and possessed, and in either case, they are required to report their proceedings under this order to the Court.

Lillie May Jones.....Defendant.

To the Honorable James L. McLemore, Judge of the Circuit Court of Nansemond County:

Your Commissioner, S. E. Everett, appointed by your Honor in the above entitled cause on the 7th day of September, 1920, to make sale of certain property mentioned in the bill and proceedings in said cause, respectfully submits the following report:

Your Commissioner collected from the purchaser, the purchase price of $600. and has paid the costs and all of the shares to the adults and has in hand $60., the share of Lillie May Jones, infant of the age of fourteen years and mentioned in the proceedings as the only child of Blanche Jones , deceased, who would have been entitled to one share $60., if she had been living. The mother and father of Lillie May Jones are dead and the said Lillie May Jones resides with her uncle, Anthony Ford, of Whaleyville, Virginia.

The last decree that was entered by Your Honor directed your said Commissioner to pay the share due the infant, to the parents of the said infant. At the time, your Commissioner was under the impression that the father of the said Lillie May Jones was then living. Her Uncle, Anthony Ford, who is now caring for the said infant, asks that the said amount, $60., due the said infant, be paid to the said infant, for her education, maintenance and support, as she is over fourteen years of age and can use the said discretely and judiciously.

Your Commissioner asks that he be directed ~~by law~~ to pay the said funds to the said Lillie May Jones, taking her receipt for the same.

Your Commissioner is having the Uncle of Lillie May Jones, Anthony Ford, to sign this report with him as evidence of his request and wishes.

Willie Pratt, Cora Dunstan, Pattie Butler,
Jacob.E.Pratt, Mollie Hughes,Anna Farmer

vs IN CHANCERY

Lillie May Jones, infant under the age of twenty-one years. . . . . Defendant,

Your complainants, Willie Pratt, Cora Dunstan, Pattie Butler, Jacob E.Pratt, Mollie Hughes, Anna Farmer and Pearl King respectfully represent:

(1) Malissa Patterson died about twenty years ago, leaving three (3) certain lots in the village of Whaleyville,Virginia. In December, 1919, her husband, Napoleon Patterson, who had a courtesy right in the said property also died.

(2) The said real estate of which the said Malissa Patterson died seized and possessed is described as follows: All those certain three lots of land situated in the Village of Whaleyville,and bounded and described as follows: fronting on the west side of the Holy Neck Road, ninety (90) feet, and running back from said road between parallel lines one hundred (100) feet between the lands of James N.Glenn on South and the land of Wheat Haywood on the North; being bounded on the east by the said Road, and on the west by the lands of E.A.Prothers, formerly known as the Geo.B.Robertson tract, and known previous to the said Geo.B.Robertson's ownership as the Allen Matthews' tract of land.

(3) The following are the only children of Malissa Patterson; Willie Pratt, Cora Dunstan, Pattie Butler, Jacob E.Pratt, Mollie Hughes, Anna Farmer and Pearl King. One daughter, Blanche Jones, died,leaving as her only child and heir at law one daughter, Lillie May Jones, an infant under the age of twenty-one years; to-wit,of the age of twelve or thirteen years. The husband of Blanche Jones is also dead, and the above named infant, Lillie May Jones is her only heir at law. The above named children, Willie Pratt, Cora Dunstan, Pattie Butler, Jacob E. Pratt, Mollie Hughes, Anna Farmer and Pearl King, and the one Grandchild, Lillie May Jones are the only heirs at law of Malissa Patterson.

(4) The said real estate is, as they believe , susceptible of partition among the parties entitled thereto; but should the property not be divisible in kind, complainants believe and here state, that the interests of those who are entitled to the said real estate or its proceeds, will be promoted by a sale of the whole of the same, or by an allotment of part and the sale of the residue.

In consideration whereof, and forasmuch as your complainants are remediless in the premises save by the aid of a court of equity they pray that the said Lillie May Jones be made a party defendant to this bill, and the said infant be required to answer the same by her guardian ad litem; that a proper guardian ad litem be appointed in this cause for said infant, who shall also answer this bill; that proper process issue; that the said estate be divided between the parties entitled thereto, or else, if it can not be so divided, that it may be sold and the proceeds divided among the adult and infant parties according to their respective rights, the share of the infant to be paid as directed by the statute for such cases made and provided; that all proper orders and decrees may be made, accounts taken, and enquiries directed, and that your complainants may have all such further and other and general relief in the premises as the nature of their case may require, or to equity shall seem meet.
